Welcome From Head Coach Bob Stoops

Welcome to one of the great traditions in all of sports, football at the University of Oklahoma. Our very name is synonymous with the history and excellence of college football.

It is that because the Sooner program is as vibrant and pertinent today as it was 50 years ago. This is a place where the championships of the past are appreciated, but never to the point that they blur the pursuit of our next one.

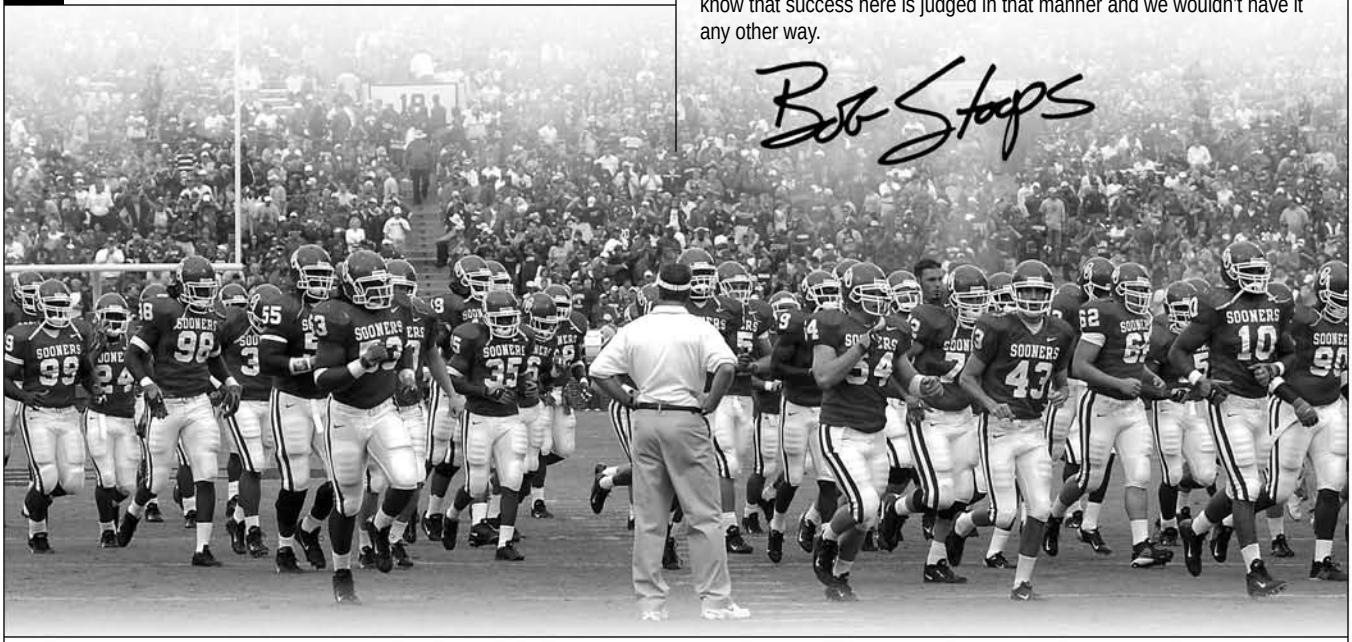
Success here only creates a hunger for more; more success on the field, more success in the classroom and more success in life away from football. And the people here ask the right questions... How can we achieve more? How can we do it better? How can we help you reach your goals?

The real winner in that scenario is the student-athlete. This environment inspires greatness and encourages excellence. It does so with an eye on compassion and friendliness, qualities that have long defined Oklahoma.

I don't believe there is a better situation in all of college football than the one that has been created right here in Norman. There is an unmistakable energy and yet a comfortable pace that co-exist on this campus.

It is that atmosphere that allows us each year to set out in pursuit of college football's highest goals, to prepare for that next championship. We know that success here is judged in that manner and we wouldn't have it any other way.

Bob Stoops



2007 OU FOOTBALL GUIDE

The 2007 Oklahoma Football Guide was designed and produced by the OU Athletics Department in Norman, Okla., using Adobe InDesign and Adobe Photoshop.

The guide was printed by OU Printing Services of Norman at no cost to the taxpayers of the state of Oklahoma. The University of Oklahoma is an equal opportunity employer.

THE STADIUM

Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its recent expansion, now ranks among the 15 largest on-campus facilities in the nation.

58

SEASON OUTLOOK

Oklahoma opens the season against North Texas in Norman. A home date with Miami (Fla.) highlights the non-conference schedule with the 102nd OU-Texas game slated for the Cotton Bowl. Big 12 foes Missouri, Texas A&M, Baylor and Oklahoma State visit Norman while OU travels to Colorado, Iowa State and Texas Tech.

ROSTERS

As it does every year, graduation claimed a number of big-name players from the OU roster last season. That number is dwarfed by this one, though -- 31. That's the number of Sooners that drew at least one starting assignment in 2006 that are back for 2007. This is a roster brimming with experience and talent.

COACHING STAFF

Identifying and recruiting talent, coaching talent to play at its peak and preparing players for life after college, whether it be football or in the business world, nobody does it better than head coach Bob Stoops and the Oklahoma coaching staff.

90

PLAYER BIOS

Among this diversely talented group of Oklahoma players are likely candidates for a number of post-season awards. Last season's squad had the smallest senior class of Bob Stoops' tenure, hence this team features good experience and numerous appearances on college football's big stage.

128

SEASON REVIEW

In a season fraught with adversity, Bob Stoops and his team chose to ignore the excuses. By doing so they secured one of the most unlikely in Oklahoma's incredible list of 40 conference championships. The resulting Fiesta Bowl invitation meant that the senior class would play in all four of those classics.

SOONER TRADITION

History is one tough customer at Oklahoma. The tradition, so rich and so long-standing, is as daunting as it is impressive. To be among the best at Oklahoma is to be among the best in college football. Review complete statistics, award winners, player honors, letterwinners, bowl game tradition and NFL Sooners.

192

SEASON BY SEASON

The 2007 season will mark the 113th season of intercollegiate football at OU. The Sooners were playing football 12 years before Oklahoma became a state. This year, that same state celebrates its centennial. Rarely has a football program and commonwealth enjoyed a more harmonious relationship that what exists in the Sooner state.

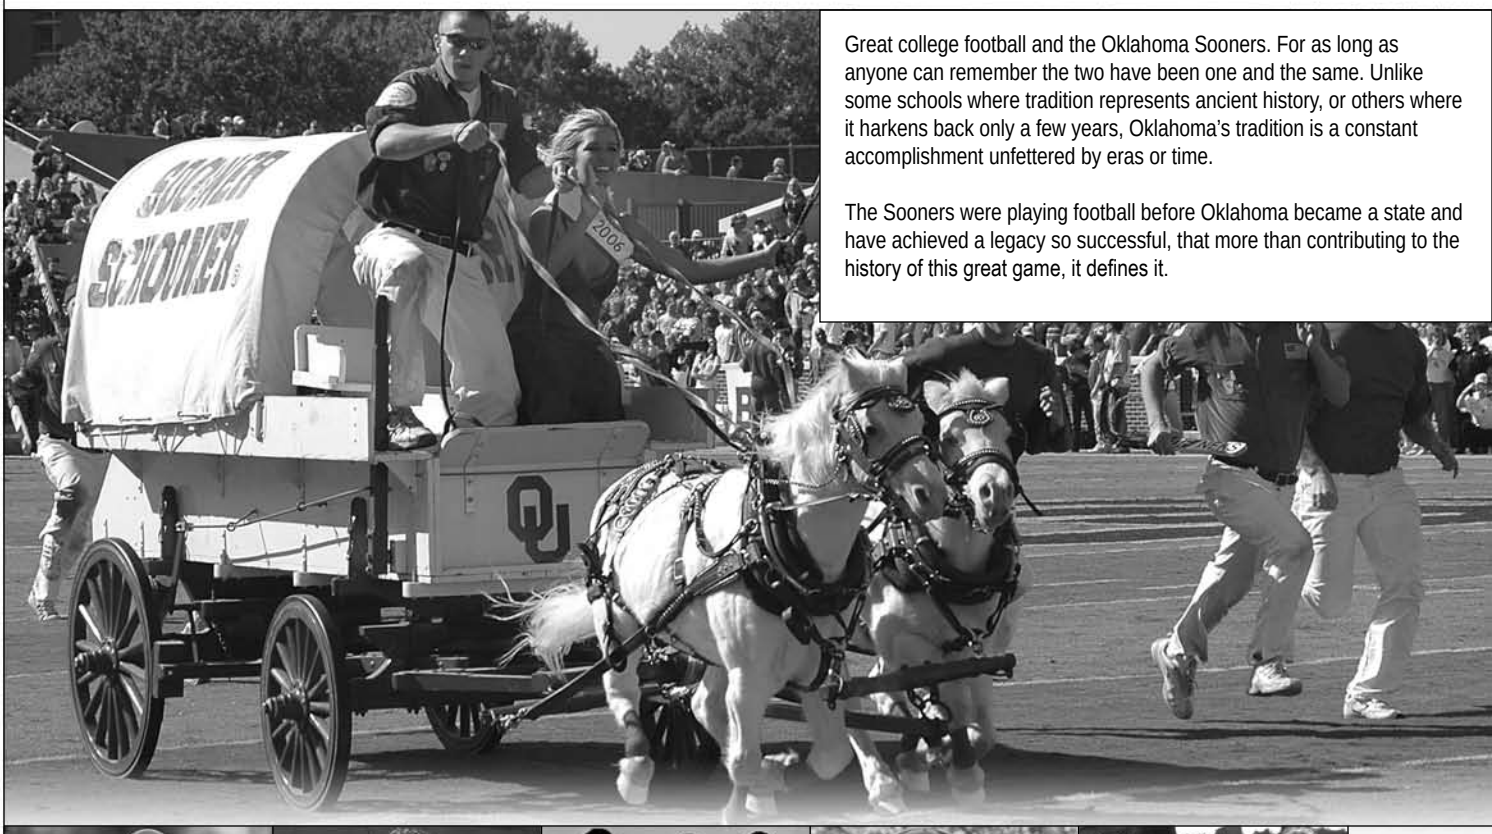
SOONER FOOTBALL TRADITION

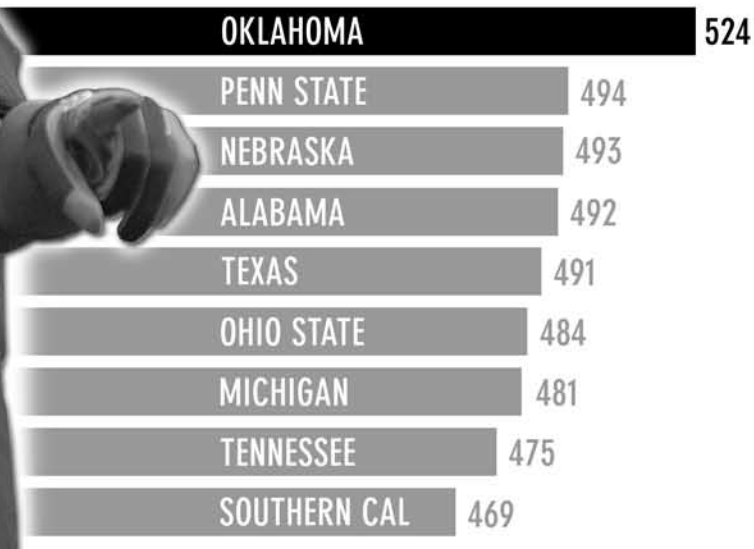


Great college football and the Oklahoma Sooners. For as long as anyone can remember the two have been one and the same. Unlike some schools where tradition represents ancient history, or others where it harkens back only a few years, Oklahoma's tradition is a constant accomplishment unfettered by eras or time.

The Sooners were playing football before Oklahoma became a state and have achieved a legacy so successful, that more than contributing to the history of this great game, it defines it.

Most Successful Program of the Modern Era

Oklahoma is king in the modern era of college football. Since the end of World War II, the Sooners are the nation's No. 1 team, with more victories (524) than any other school and the best winning percentage (.760). Victories 1946-2005:



7 National Championships

40 Conference Championships

24 Bowl Championships

4 Heisman Trophy Winners

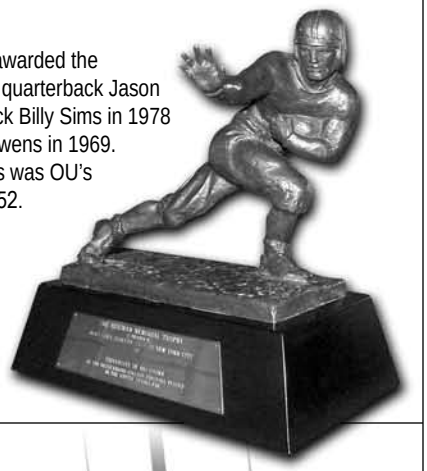
63 National Award Winners

142 All-Americans

Greatest Players in College Football

Some of the greatest players in college football history have worn the Crimson and Cream. The University of Oklahoma has averaged more than one All-American per year since it began playing football in 1895. To date, OU players have been bestowed the prestigious honor 142 times.

Four Sooners have been awarded the Heisman Trophy including quarterback Jason White in 2003, running back Billy Sims in 1978 and running back Steve Owens in 1969. Running back Billy Vessels was OU's first Heisman winner in 1952.



Why Oklahoma? Rufus Alexander, Minnesota Vikings

"The people made this the right decision for me. Everyone welcomes you here and they're all very encouraging. You believe that you will become a great player here because the people here keeping telling you it will happen. It's a very positive environment for a player."

BOOMING SOONERS

What have you done for me lately?

In Oklahoma's case, plenty. This is one of the hottest programs in all of sports.

Oklahoma has played in three national championship games over the last seven seasons, owns four Big 12 championships during that time and the most recently graduated senior class played in all four of the BCS games. OU also has turned out a list of award winners and draft picks so long that it taxes even the best memory to name them all.

Greatness begets greatness and there has been plenty of that in Norman lately. Now, from all corners of the country, the best players come to join a program of traditional success that is riding one of its biggest waves.

57 Consecutive Televised Games

Imagine every game of your college career televised for family and friends back home. To a Sooner, that's no dream; it's reality. Every one of the past 57 OU football games have been on TV.

Thanks to ABC, ESPN, Fox Sports Net millions of viewers tune in to see Oklahoma on a regular basis.

Everyone loves a winner and the Sooners has been just that under head coach Bob Stoops. But OU's success has driven ratings since the program's first televised game in 1952. In all, the Sooners have played 249 games on TV.

This is the center of the college football world and the television cameras are never far away.

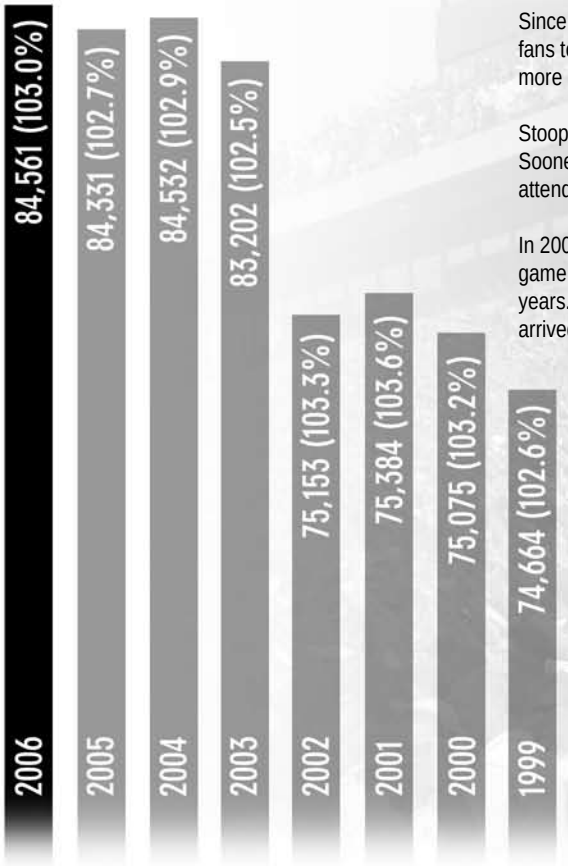
MEMORIAL STADIUM

Stoops Era Attendance Approaches Four Million

Since Bob Stoops became the head coach in 1999, Oklahoma has drawn 3,905,029 fans to Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. Never has Sooner football been more popular with its rabid following.

Stoops' winning ways, which have yielded 47 victories in 49 home games, stoked the Sooner nation and have led to the expansion of OU's stadium by 9,347 seats. Even so, attendance has exceeded the listed capacity of 82,112 in 23 consecutive games.

In 2006, Oklahoma set records for average season attendance (84,561) and single game attendance (85,313). Both are typical of what has happened here in recent years. The top seven seasons for OU home attendance took place since Stoops arrived.



SEVEN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

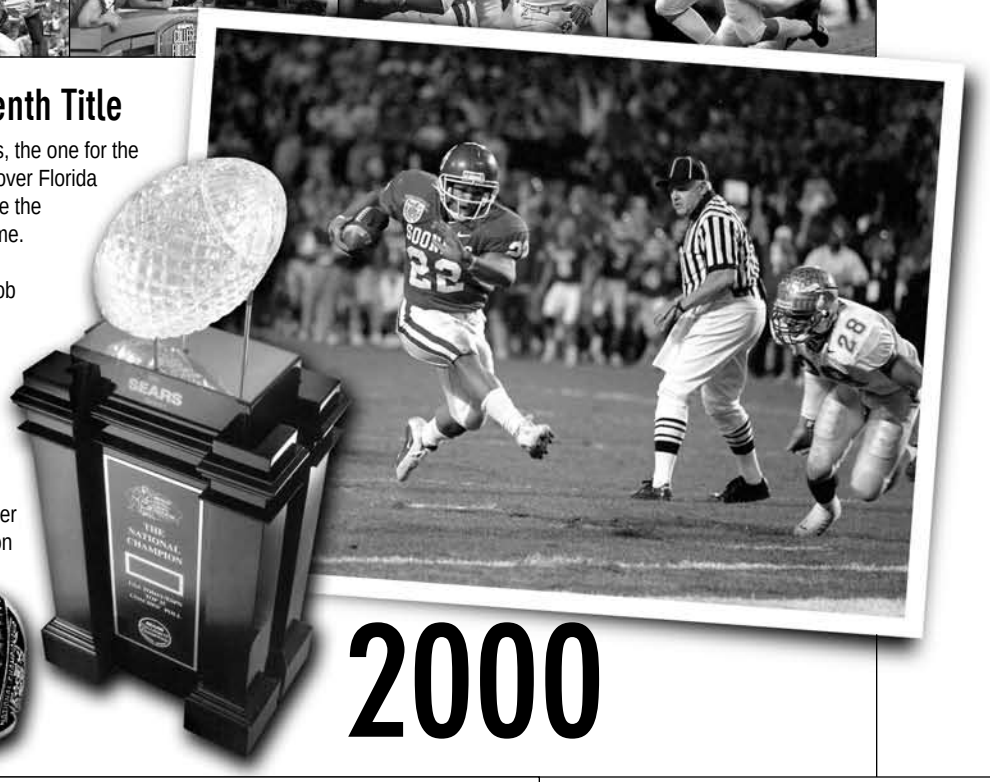
2000 NATIONAL CHAMPS

Stoops Leads Oklahoma to Seventh Title

In a 2000 season so richly laced with great moments, the one for the ages came in the national title game, a 13-2 victory over Florida State in the Orange Bowl. It has been called by some the greatest defensive effort ever in a championship game.

The national title season came just two years into Bob Stoops' tenure and just two years removed from a sub-.500 season. Along the way, the Sooners had thrilling wins over Nebraska, Texas, Texas A&M and Kansas State (twice), with only one of those contests played at Owen Field in Norman.

Headliners included QB Josh Heupel, who finished second in the Heisman voting, and big-play linebacker Torrance Marshall. The mark at the end of the season was an unblemished 13-0.



2000

HEAD COACH BOB STOOPS

Oklahoma is Championship Football

Nothing defines the competitive success of a college athletics program like a national championship. Oklahoma, with seven national titles sprinkled over four decades, is one of the very few programs that sets out each fall with the expectation and legitimate goal of pursuing the national crown. That pursuit rates as a lot more than just talk around here.

The aura is unmistakable, and it radiates from real and repeated success on college football's biggest stage. Oklahoma has claimed more national championships than any other Big 12 program.

The Sooners under Bob Stoops earned the program's most recent title in 2000 with an Orange Bowl victory over Florida State to cap an undefeated, 13-0 season. OU's other championships came under Barry Switzer in 1985, 1975 and 1974, and Bud Wilkinson in 1956, 1955 and 1950.

Oklahoma has played for the BCS title three times during Stoops' tenure.

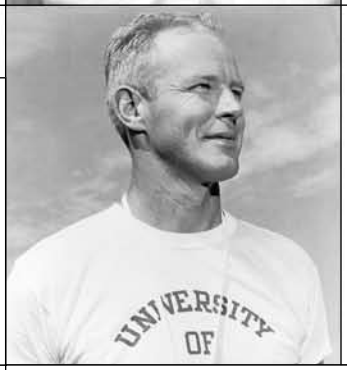
BARRY SWITZER

Head Coach Barry Switzer

Barry Switzer led his Oklahoma teams to national championships in 1974, 1975 and 1985. He also won 12 Big Eight Conference championships and had eight bowl victories in 13 appearances. Switzer directed the Sooners on a 28-game win streak from 1973 (his first season as head coach) to 1975. When Oklahoma won the national championship in 1975, it marked the first time in history a team had won back-to-back titles more than once. In 1970, as an assistant, he convinced head coach Chuck Fairbanks to make the most significant and gutsy move in OU's football history, a switch to the wishbone offense.

1956
1955
1950

BUD WILKINSON



Head Coach Bud Wilkinson

Oklahoma's 13th football coach produced teams that were 6-2 in postseason play, won the national championship in 1950, 1955 and 1956 and did not lose an astounding 74 straight conference games from 1946-1959 (72 wins, 2 ties). His teams still hold the modern record for wins by a Division I-A school with 47 straight victories from 1953-1957. After the 1947 season, the Sooners won 12 straight conference championships. In 17 seasons at Oklahoma, Wilkinson fostered racial integration and graduated players at an 87.2 percentage rate while becoming the eighth-winningest coach in Division I-A history.

40 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

No Team Has More Big 12 Titles

Oklahoma won its first conference championship in 1915 and has since tacked on another 39. In other words, the Sooners average a conference title just about every two seasons.

That same pace has carried through the Bob Stoops era with four league crowns in eight years. That feat merits considerable respect. Under the Big 12 format, teams must first win a divisional crown over five opponents before advancing to meet the other divisional winner at a neutral site.

Four Big 12 Conference Championships

Since the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996, no team has won as many league titles as Oklahoma. The most recent of the four came in 2006 when OU handled Nebraska, 21-7, at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City. The Sooners defeated Colorado, 42-3, in KC for the 2004 crown. Oklahoma won the 2002 Big 12 title over Colorado, 29-7, at Reliant Stadium in Houston and captured its first Big 12 championship in 2000 with a 27-24 victory against Kansas State at Arrowhead Stadium.

2006 Big 12 Champions

OU Stymies Nebraska, 21-7

The Oklahoma defense forced five turnovers and the offense put together at 99-yard third-quarter touchdown march as the Sooners stymied Nebraska, 21-7, at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City.

2004 Big 12 Champions

Sooners Roll Past Colorado, 42-3

Oklahoma was nearly flawless in Kansas City, getting three touchdown passes from Jason White and three more on the ground from Adrian Peterson to dismantle Colorado at Arrowhead Stadium for the Big 12 title.

2002 Big 12 Champions

Oklahoma Handles Buffaloes, 29-7

Nate Hybl threw two touchdown passes and Quentin Griffin ran for a championship game-record 188 yards and two touchdowns as the eighth-ranked Sooners beat the No. 12 Buffaloes, 29-7.

2000 Big 12 Champions

OU Beats Kansas State for Title, 27-24

A surprise option pitch on fourth-and-inches turned into a 22-yard gain by Quentin Griffin and set up Josh Heupel's 17-yard go-ahead touchdown pass in No. 1 Oklahoma's 27-24 victory over Kansas State.

142 ALL-AMERICANS

If it's a college football season, the likelihood is that more than one Sooner ranks among the best players in the land. That was true in 1913 when OU produced its first All-American and it's true today when the rate of additions is so rapid that the total now outnumbers the age of the program itself.

One of college football's greatest programs has been built on some of college football's finest players. That's the natural result when talent meets coaching at a program with eye-popping facilities and great visibility.

Consensus All-Americans in the Big 12

University of Oklahoma players have earned consensus All-America honors 63 times in the program's history. No other school in the Big 12 Conference has produced more consensus All-Americans.

What is a consensus All-American? The NCAA officially recognizes selections from five All-America teams: The Sporting News, AP, AFCA, FWAA and Walter Camp.

A player is designated a consensus All-American if he is a first-team selection on at least three of the five teams.

NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS

Sixteen Winners in Last Seven Seasons

For many years, college football has paused at the end of each season to recognize its finest players. The award names like Heisman, Outland, Thorpe and Butkus are woven into the fabric of the game as a tribute to the past and a beacon for the present.

The awards ceremonies attract the greatest names in the game, and of course, they attract and honor Oklahoma Sooners. The road to the bright lights, podium and acceptance speech starts with great talent and hard work, common staples at OU. The Sooner program then provides the national stage on which players can be seen. The result has been an impressive collection of hardware.

SOONERS IN THE NFL

Elite Program Prepares Players for Next Level

The league. Pro ball. The next level. It is the dream of every college football player. It is reality for many Oklahoma Sooners. Few programs in the country attract talent and prepare it to move on better than Oklahoma. Ten Sooners were tabbed in the 2005 NFL Draft alone, including two in the first round and five in the first two.

OU plays pro schemes, has two coaches who had lengthy NFL careers and employs a rigorous strength and conditioning program that is so effective that many of those who have gone on to professional careers come back to Norman in the off-season to continue their training.

Players with the ability and drive to make the NFL flourish at Oklahoma and leave here equipped to play football beyond their college days.

NATIONAL ATTENTION AT OU

Sooners at Center of College Football

Oklahoma is a household name due to the overwhelming media attention that hovers around the Sooners. Writers and broadcasters representing the nation's most recognized media outlets regularly interact with Sooner players and coaches and routinely spend time in Norman.

And when they can't come to campus, those same observers keep tabs on OU thanks to extensive television coverage. In 2006, all 14 Oklahoma games appeared on live television, including seven that were carried nationally or regionally on ABC or TBS. The Sooners are at the very center of college football and the entire world is watching.

5	The popularity of the Sooners is evident in the immense amount of products and apparel purchased by fans. OU ranks fifth in the nation in sales of licensed merchandise.
16	Over the past seven years, ESPN's popular College Gameday production has broadcast on site from 16 of Oklahoma's games. That's an average of more than two games per season.
29	Sooner football is one of the most popular subjects for SI with 29 cover appearances. Since 2000, Oklahoma players have appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated eight times.
38	More than 38 million people visited SoonerSports.com last year, making the official website of the Oklahoma Athletics Department one of the top collegiate sites in the nation.
49	The Sooners have played in front of 49 consecutive sellout crowds at Oklahoma Memorial Stadium in Norman, including every home game of Coach Bob Stoops' tenure.
94	Over the past five seasons, 95 percent of Oklahoma's games were televised live (76 of 80 games). In fact, 57 consecutive OU games have been on TV.

24 BOWL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Forty bowl appearances and 24 bowl victories have firmly entrenched Oklahoma among the most tradition-rich schools in America. The Sooners have become synonymous with post-season play at the highest level.

At a school where the bowl history is laced with games of historical significance, the last few years have represented another fabulous roll for the Schooner. Three times in the last seven seasons the Sooners have played for the national championship, four times they have been in BCS bowls and in six seasons they played in January games.

OU enjoys favored status among the bowl community, mostly for its tradition, but also for its fan following. Some 50,000 ventured to the Rose, Sugar, Orange and Fiesta Bowls over the last few seasons. Regardless of the location, Sooner fans flock to follow a bowl tradition that is as fresh as it is historic.

OU-TEXAS WEEKEND

Storied Rivalry at Cotton Bowl in October

The Oklahoma-Texas game, played each season at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, a location approximately halfway between the two campuses, is one of the country's most spectacular sporting events.

Staged during the State Fair of Texas, the contest is witnessed by a crowd perfectly defined by color – half crimson, half burnt orange – in an atmosphere that is arguably more unique than that found at any other game. This rivalry is one that marks time and gives players and fans alike experiences for a lifetime.

GOLDEN HAT TROPHY

The Tunnel Experience

From the top of The Tunnel that leads into the floor of the Cotton Bowl it looks like no big deal. All you can see is end zone. Then you start running and the world explodes around you. Your eardrums are pounded by the screams of 75,587 people and the blasts of the modified 12-gauge shotguns that the OU Ruf/Nek spirit group carries...

You feel the world shake and start to understand why every Longhorn or Sooner who has taken these steps before you can never seem to find the exact words necessary to convey what has just happened.

You've just run down the tunnel at the OU-Texas game -- generally regarded as one of the greatest moments a college football player can experience.

Sooners Set to Perform in Norman

To understand a football Saturday in Norman, one must first understand what the sport means to Oklahomans. The Sooners were competing on the gridiron before this grand land moved from territorial status to statehood. Few college programs are more engrained in their surroundings than the one at OU.

Game day at Oklahoma is about more than 80,000 fans witnessing one of the most historic and vibrant programs in college football at one of the game's truly great cathedrals.

It is about pride for a great university. Indeed, it is about pride for an entire state. Game day here represents football and a whole lot more.

OU FOOTBALL FACILITIES

Preparation Meets Opportunity

It would be hard to imagine a football program doing more over the last six years to enhance its facilities than OU. The $70 million expansion and enhancement of Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is perhaps the most noticeable upgrade, but it is simply the lead project in a plan that has impacted every facet of Sooner football.

A new locker room, a new indoor training facility, a new weight training facility, a new practice field, roughly 8,000 new seats and 60 new stadium suites are testaments to OU's dedication to providing the best for its student-athletes. Preparation routinely meets opportunity at Oklahoma. It does so largely because the Sooners have what they need to succeed.

4	Four regulation-size practice fields are available to the Sooners right outside their locker room: Owen Field, two grass fields plus an artificial turf field with sand pit.
65	The ceiling inside the Everest Training Facility hangs a full 65 feet above the SafePlay Synthetic Turf surface. This allows for all kicking and throwing drills during practice.
70	Oklahoma recently completed a $70 million stadium expansion and enhancement project that added nearly 9,500 seats.
74	On those rare days that the weather forces Oklahoma to practice indoors, the Sooners can move to the 74,000-square-foot Everest Indoor Training Facility.

COACH SCHMIDT

Championship Strength & Conditioning

The best testimony for the impact Jerry Schmidt and his staff have on Oklahoma football players comes from former Oklahoma players -- those in professional football. It's not uncommon for members of that select fraternity to return to Norman for part of their off-season training regimen. During their time in the Sooner program, they learned the quality of the strength and conditioning program.

Schmidt has been involved with three national football championships at three different schools. His success is no coincidence. Now in his ninth year at OU, he is recognized nationally as one of the best in the business, and the athletics department has surrounded him with facilities that give Sooner student-athletes the best opportunity to excel.

3	Jerry Schmidt has coached with teams that played in five national championship games. He has three national title rings from Oklahoma, Notre Dame and Florida.
4	Schmidt has worked with four Heisman winners, including Jason White (Oklahoma), Danny Wuerffel (Florida), Barry Sanders (Oklahoma State) and Tim Brown (Notre Dame).
18	A total of 18 Sooners were selected in the 2005, 2006 and 2007 NFL Drafts. No school has produced more pro football selections than Oklahoma the past three years.
23	Schmidt has coached 24 NFL first-round picks including OU's Adrian Peterson, Davin Joseph, Jammal Brown, Mark Clayton, Tommie Harris, Andre Woolfolk and Roy Williams.
31	No. 31 for the Dallas Cowboys and former Sooner standout, Roy Williams, donated $100,000 to establish a new weight room in Oklahoma's Everest Training Facility.

CHRIS BROWN

The Best in the Business

"Jerry Schmidt is Oklahoma's Director of Sports Enhancement. He worked under Tom Osborne at Nebraska, Lou Holtz at Notre Dame and Steve Spurrier at Florida, where he became buddies with the Gators' then-defensive coordinator, Bob Stoops.

"Schmidt made sure that Stoops' players were big and fast. Insiders will tell you he's probably the best in the business. The Sooners have played for three national titles since 2000.

"Almost to a man, the Sooners looked like they were cut out of marble. There were no guts hanging over belts. There were no skinny arms or pear-shaped frames. They were as soft as petrified trees. These guys looked like well-conditioned athletes."

- Ted Miller, Seattle Post-Intelligencer, 2005

EXPLOSIVE OFFENSE

Big Names, Big Balance

Pass oriented? You could make that case. Numerous records for both passing and receiving have fallen over the last few years.

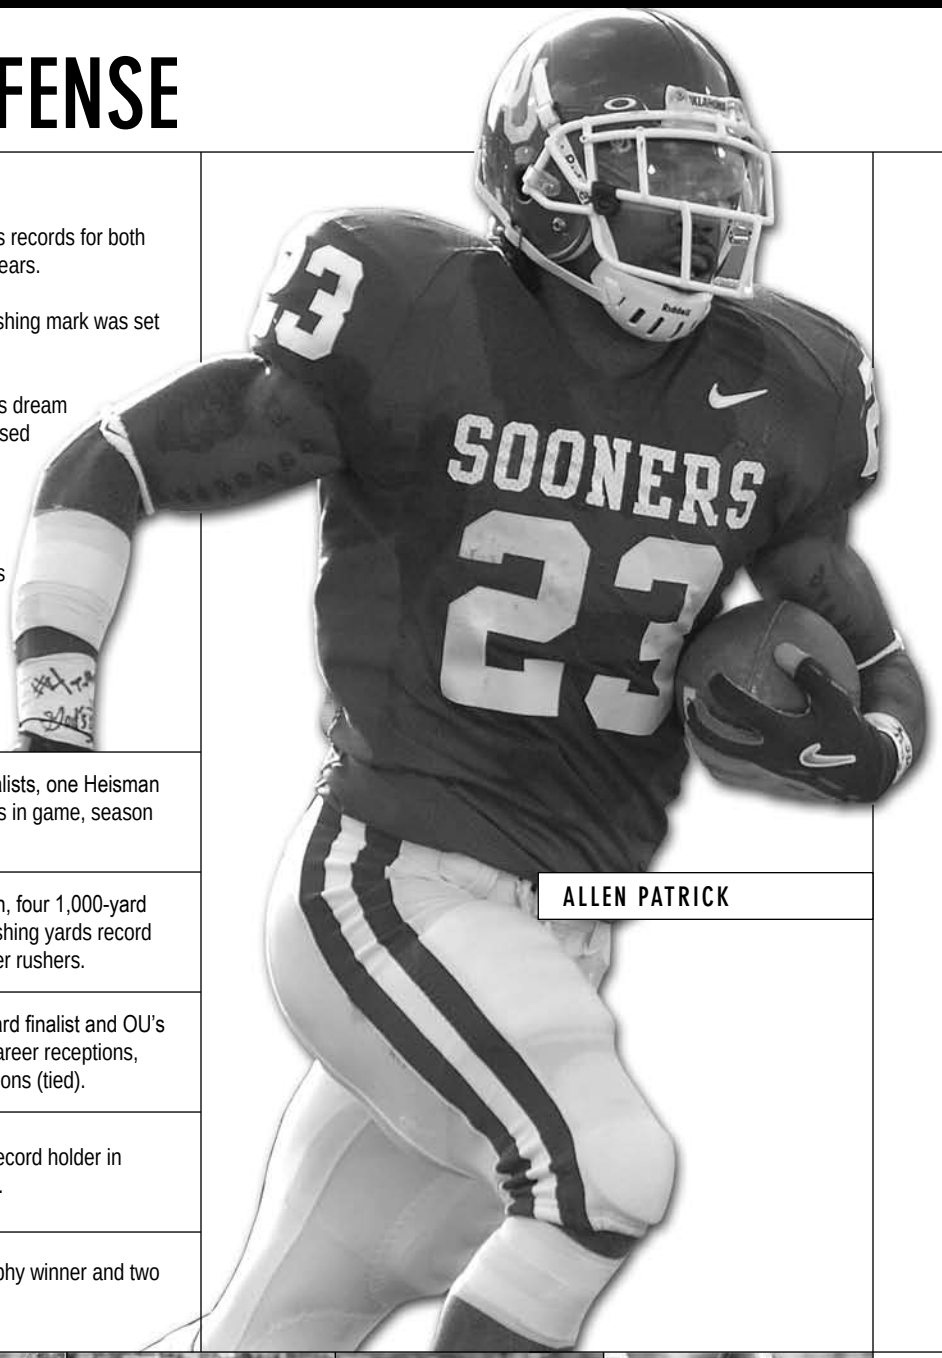
Run oriented? Maybe. After all, the single season rushing mark was set in 2004. Well which is it, passing or running?

At Oklahoma, the answer is both. While most schools dream of balance, OU is balance. In 2006, the Sooners passed for 2,682 yards. They rushed for 2,480.

And that balance creates opportunity for some of the best-known names in all of college football. It is common to see the ball in the hands of 10-15 players during a game. Many stay involved to the detriment of none.

Under Coach Stoops, the Oklahoma offense, with its pro influence and varied formations, has produced:

QB	Two All-Americans, three Heisman finalists, one Heisman Trophy winner and OU's record holders in game, season and career passing yards.
RB	One Heisman finalist, one All-American, four 1,000-yard rushers, Oklahoma's single season rushing yards record holder and OU's No. 2 and No. 3 career rushers.
WR	Two All-Americans, one Biletnikoff Award finalist and OU's record holders in game, season and career receptions, receiving yards and touchdown receptions (tied).
TE	One Mackey Award and Oklahoma's record holder in touchdown receptions in a game (tied).
OL	Three All-Americans, one Outland Trophy winner and two Rimington Award finalists.



ALLEN PATRICK

105	Oklahoma has scored a touchdown in 105 consecutive games, a streak that dates back to Nov. 7, 1998.
35	Oklahoma has averaged 35 points per game under Stoops.
25	The big-play Sooners have 103 scoring plays of 25 yards or longer since Stoops became the head coach.
14	Fourteen different Sooner players logged a pass reception during the 2006 season.
8	Oklahoma has produced an All-Big 12 offensive lineman in each of the last eight seasons.
3	Three different Oklahoma running backs exceeded 100 rushing yards in a game last season.

DOMINATING DEFENSE

Attacking Defense Built on Speed

Oklahoma's defense suffers from a bit of an identity crisis.

With a takeaway in 94 of Bob Stoops' 105 games and 20 interception or fumble returns for touchdowns during this coach's tenure, the defense has a reputation of, well, being a little offensive.

The Sooners' attack-style defense, long appreciated for its speed and aggressive attitude, is perhaps best known for its consistency. OU has ranked among the top 16 teams in the nation in total defense for seven consecutive years.

Outstanding players have dominated the landscape. Twice in the last seven years, a Sooner has been named the best defensive player in the nation.

SOONER SPECIAL TEAMS

A strong case can be made that no program has played better on its special teams in recent years than Oklahoma. Time and again the Sooners have blown games wide open with electric and innovative special teams play.

Bob Stoops' commitment to special teams performance is evidenced by the number of first-team players that participate on those units. The wisdom of that move, and the program's overall devotion to special teams play, is found in the staggering numbers that relate to every possible facet of the kicking and return games.

Why Oklahoma? Dusty Dvoracek, Chicago Bears

"The coaching staff impressed me more than any other I dealt with during the recruiting process. They really meant what they said. The best players really do get to play, no matter what. That's how you win championships. And the fans here are great. They root for us, but they care about us as people."

95	In 2006, Garrett Hartley connected on 19-of-20 field goal attempts, setting the OU single-season field goal percentage record at 95 percent.
24	The Sooners have 24 special teams touchdowns under their current head coach. Fourteen of those came on punt returns by five different players.
19	Oklahoma has blocked 21 kicks since head coach Bob Stoops arrived in Norman in 1999.
8	Antonio Perkins tied an NCAA record during his career at Oklahoma (2001-04) with eight punt returns for touchdowns. He had three against UCLA in 2003.
4	Oklahoma special teams have converted on four scoring plays (three touchdowns and one two-point conversion) off faked kicks since 1999.

HEAD COACH BOB STOOPS

Winningest Active Coach in College Football

The kind of admiration Bob Stoops has achieved is the best kind. It's a byproduct of the success his program has enjoyed and the manner in which he has conducted himself. Football observers from coast to coast have witnessed the renaissance authored by Stoops at Oklahoma and often proclaim the Sooner coach among the very best in the land. When Stoops arrived in Norman, OU had fallen on brief and uncharacteristic hard times. He has returned Oklahoma football to its rightful place among the elite, and there is no denying that he is the person most responsible for the turnaround. The pride has been restored and a nation has noticed.

Winningest active coaches with at least eight years as head coach:

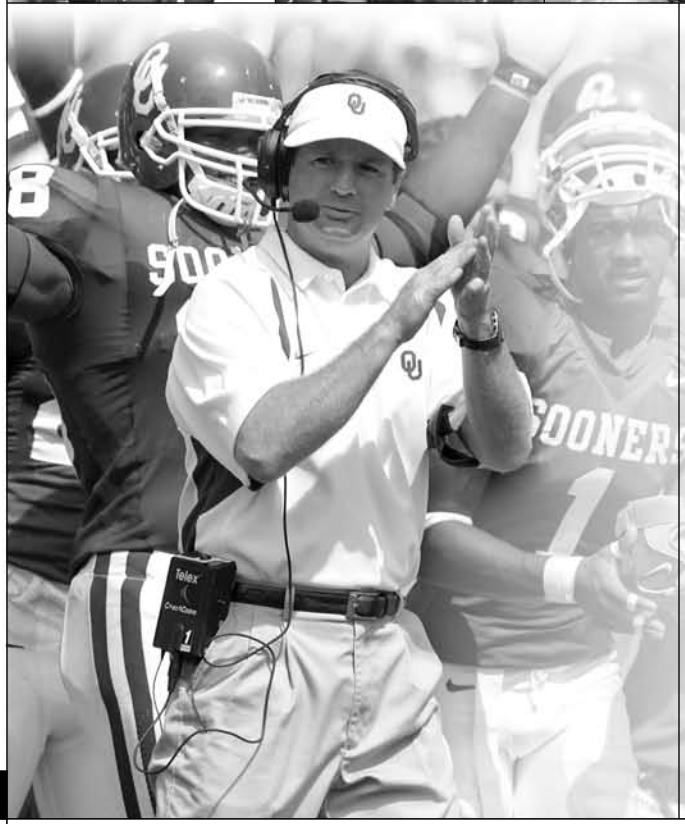
HEAD COACH BOB STOOPS



Quotes on Coach Stoops

"This is a (Sooner) team that's going to contend for the National Championship as long as Bob Stoops wants to."

- John Saunders, ABC Sports

"He has brought us back to the pinnacle of college football. Bob is creating his own legend. He inherited a program with great tradition, and he's added to it."

- Barry Switzer, Former Oklahoma Head Coach

"In a sport in which icons are dropping annually from sight, and phenoms are forever heading to the NFL, Stoops is the closest thing to a budding legend in the NCAA."

- John Romano, St. Petersburg Times

"Bob Stoops is one of the first guys in the coaching profession that has ability to mix family along with coaching. About 15 years ago, you couldn't do that. People thought that was the wrong thing to do. So I admire coach Stoops in that every time I talk to him, something about family comes up. You have three kids to raise, a wife to take care of and a football team to coach. In that order."

- Urban Meyer, Head Coach, University of Florida

"Stoops' philosophy is at the same time unbending and liberating. He presides over players who are competitive and aggressive, but also respectful and talkative."

- David Barron, Houston Chronicle

STOOPS ON SIDELINE

1	The Sooners have spent 22 weeks ranked No. 1 under Coach Stoops. OU is tied with Notre Dame in first place in college football history for most weeks (95) ranked No. 1.
8	Oklahoma has played in bowl games in all eight seasons under Stoops. Five of the eight have been BCS bowls and three have been National Championship games.
22	Stoops has produced 22 All-Americans in his seven seasons in Norman including 13 consensus selections. OU had a record seven All-Americans in 2003 and five in 2004.
32	32 Sooners have been selected in the NFL Draft during Stoops' tenure in Norman. No school has had more picks (18) than Oklahoma the past three seasons.
87	Bob Stoops' Oklahoma Sooners strike fast and hard. OU has held double-digit leads in 87 of the team's 105 games, or 83 percent, since Stoops took over as head coach.

COACH STOOPS

Why Oklahoma? Malcolm Kelly, Junior Wide Receiver

"I put Coach Stoops above everything else. He is very down to earth. He never acts like he is above everybody else or better than the next guy. All of the coaches here are great. This is home away from home, a family away from my family."

OU COACHING STAFF

155 Cumulative Years of Experience

In Bob Stoops' eight seasons at the University of Oklahoma, four of his assistant coaches have gone on to become head coaches at other I-A programs. It's not hard to gauge the quality of the Sooner staff or Stoops' ability to hire good people.

The beneficiaries are Oklahoma's players. In record numbers they have been honored and drafted into the professional ranks. And that has been true regardless of what position they play.

Identifying and recruiting talent, coaching talent to play at its peak and preparing players for life after college, whether it be in football or in the business world, nobody does it better than Oklahoma.

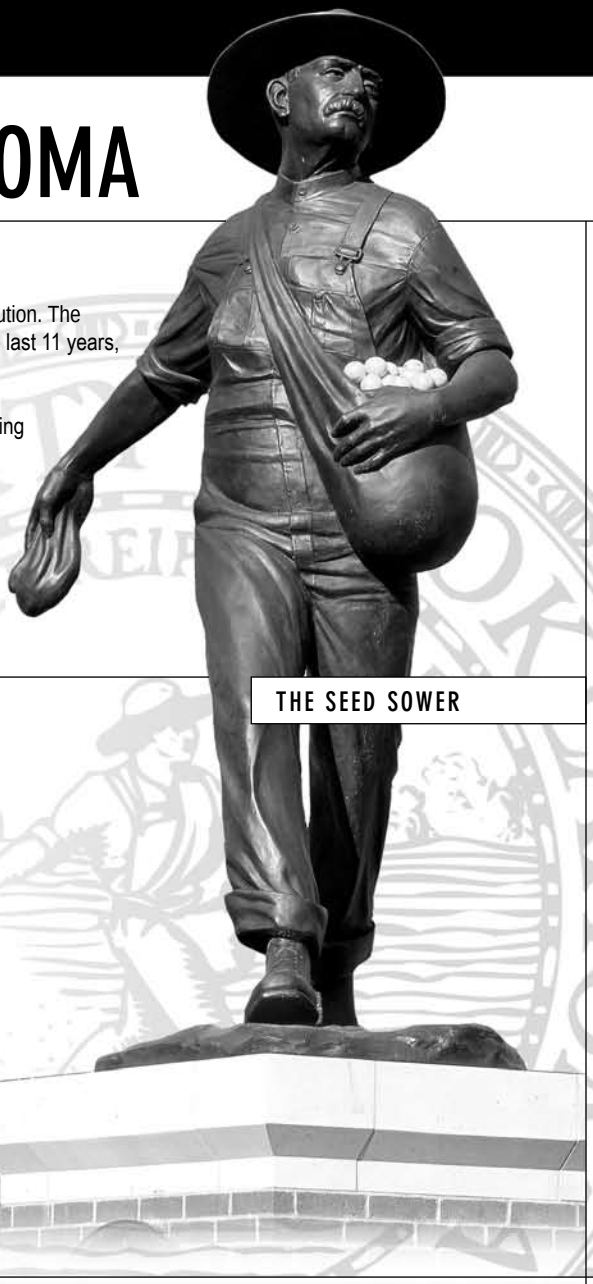
UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

Flagship Educational Institution of the Sooner State

The University of Oklahoma is experiencing a golden era in the history of a great institution. The quality of new students is soaring and donor confidence is at an all-time high. Over the last 11 years, OU's donor base has expanded at a staggering rate, moving from 17,000 to 108,000.

President David L. Boren has spurred significant changes that have resulted in a learning environment of the highest order. As a result, the state of Oklahoma enjoys resources that impact everything from medical science to the arts for many years to come.

The University of Oklahoma has long embraced the great tradition of Sooner athletics. With competitive facilities all located on the main campus, including several near the heart of the university, student-athletes and their classmates mingle comfortably in an environment that fosters an attitude of excellence, regardless of the endeavor.



THE SEED SOWER

1	The University of Oklahoma ranks number one among comprehensive public universities in the per capita number of freshman National Merit Scholars.
5	The University of Oklahoma is in the top five in the nation among all comprehensive public universities in the graduation of Rhodes Scholars.
10	OU is included on Review's "Top 10 Best Value Public Colleges" list, which ranks the best colleges in the nation based on academic excellence per value.
19	OU has 19 colleges offering 152 majors at the baccalaureate level and 160 majors at the master's level. The university's annual operating budget is more than $1 billion.
30	OU boasts an enrollment of nearly 30,000 students and more than 2,000 full-time faculty. The Norman campus maintains a student to instructor ratio of 20:1.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

McCLENDON CENTER

Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow

The recent Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium expansion and improvement included remodeled office space in the facility's north end. The largest piece of that project was the Prentice Gautt Academic Center. Some 35,000 square feet are dedicated to the academic pursuits of Sooner student-athletes.

Indeed, there is considerable emphasis on classroom performance at OU. The center staff has achievement as its focus, a fact that is reflected in a graduation rate that exceeds that of the general student body. In addition to its academic work, the staff assists in several life skills areas designed to enrich students in a broad range of tasks.

2	The Prentice Gautt Academic Center maintains two computer labs for OU student-athletes with more than 100 desktop units and over 40 laptops available to check out.

38	Legendary running back Prentice Gautt wore No. 38 during his Sooner career from 1956-59. The first African-American player at OU, the academic center is named in his honor.
84	The graduation rate for University of Oklahoma student-athletes who complete their eligibility is 84 percent.
90	The Prentice Gautt Academic Center is available more than 90 hours per week for OU student-athletes.

The Legacy of Prentice Gautt

The OU Academics Center that today's student-athletes use everyday now bears the name of the man who left an indelible legacy for Sooner Athletics and helped change a society in the process.

"It is appropriate that this center be named after Prentice Gautt," University of Oklahoma President David L. Boren said. "His personal values and character, along with his leadership as associate commissioner of the Big 12 Conference, continue to bring pride to his alma mater.

"His personal example of quiet courage, grace under pressure, and dedication to the university helped open the doors of opportunity for countless number of African-American and minority student-athletes who have followed him into collegiate athletics."

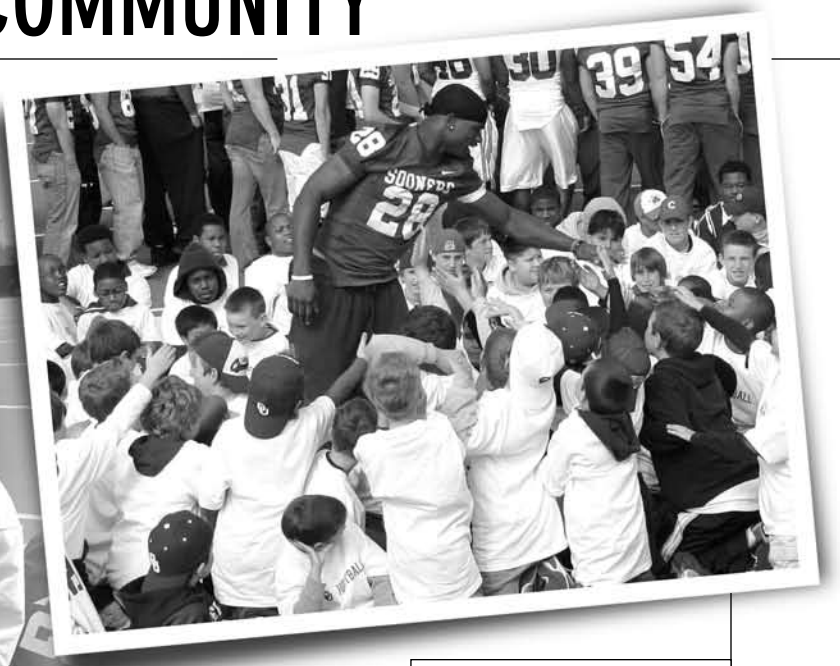
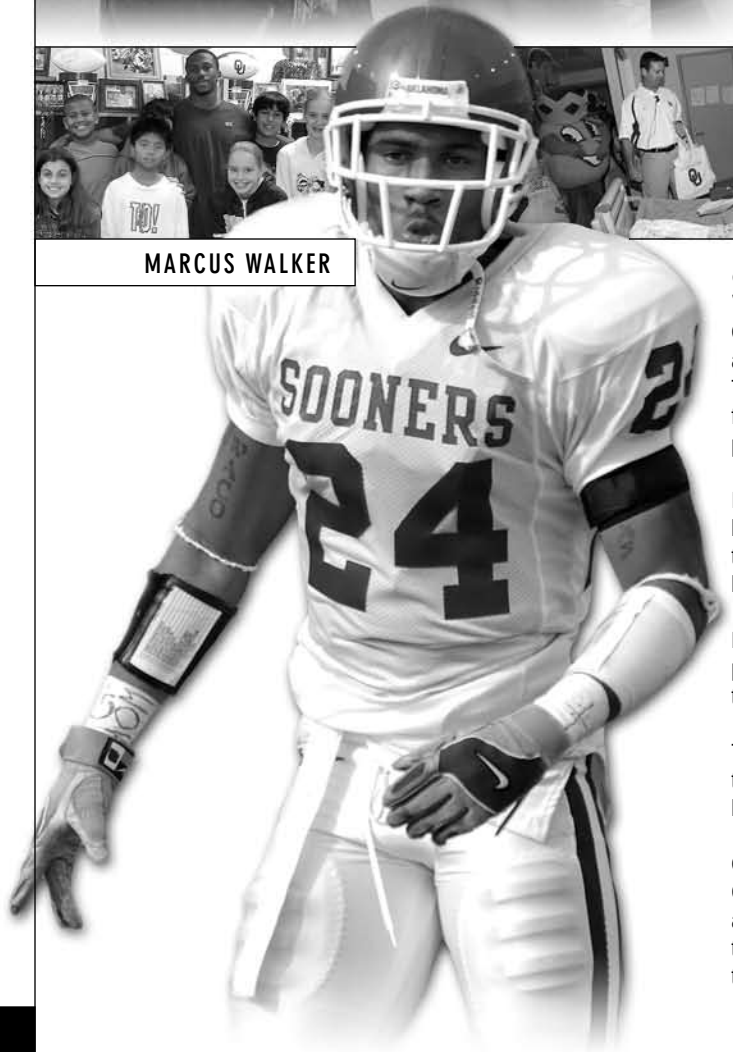
SOONERS IN THE COMMUNITY

JACOB GUTIERREZ



ADRIAN PETERSON

MARCUS WALKER



Sooners Take an Active Role

OU lives by a clear and strong motto as it interacts with its student-athletes … Inspiring Champions for Today, Preparing Leaders for Tomorrow. As part of that promise, the Athletics Department and the football program take an active role in a number of community service projects.

Individually, football players serve with numerous groups. Two of their largest projects include a free football clinic for underprivileged youth and the distribution of food that is donated by Oklahoma fans at a designated home game.

Each year on the morning of the spring football game, the Sooners provide a complimentary football clinic for a select group of youth from throughout the central Oklahoma region.

The team also plays an active role in a food drive that takes place near the Thanksgiving holiday. OU fans donate food at a game and players help in the distribution the following Monday.

Oklahoma's student-athletes recognize that wearing the Crimson and Cream means representing a popular sports program and themselves as individuals. They are encouraged to respond to a public that adores them, while learning important lessons about making a positive impact in the lives of others in and around the community in which they live.

JACOB GUTIERREZ

Sooners Finalists for Citizenship Cup

In each of the last two years an Oklahoma player has been named a finalist for the Wooden Citizenship Cup, a national award presented annually by the Atlanta-based Athletes for a Better World. In 2005, current Sooner Jacob Gutierrez was among five finalists and in 2006 it was Carl Pendleton.

Both have been trend-setters in reaching out to others. Gutierrez, a regular contributor in the Norman Public Schools, was named Norman's 2005 Youth Citizen Volunteer of the Year.

Pendleton earned national acclaim when it was announced that he would forgo his senior season of eligibility to enter graduate school at OU and take over guardianship of his 11-year-old brother.

Subsequently, Pendleton received post-graduate scholarships from the NCAA and the National Football Foundation, while also being named Big 12 Conference Sportsman of the Year. In addition, Pendleton won the Bobby Bowden Award, the highest student-athlete honor presented by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Oklahoma's roster has long included players that understand what it means to be a role model and those individuals have so involved themselves in the community that it has captured the national spotlight.

NORMAN & OKLAHOMA CITY

GAMEDAY IN NORMAN

Norman - Home of the Sooners

Norman is an ever-changing city of nearly 100,000 residents. Located in the heart of the state, it has grown to become the third largest city in Oklahoma. Despite its continuous growth, it has maintained the spirit and serenity of a small, close-knit community.

Since the Oklahoma Land Rush of 1889, Norman has grown into a popular and smart city. The spirit of Norman and its citizens is unwavering and uncompromising. While other towns were clamoring to become the state capital, Norman residents wanted to have the first state university. When the first OU president got off the train and saw a prairie, he saw opportunity.

As home to the state's premier educational institution, Norman boasts an excellent quality of life and is a city that thrives on and celebrates the diversity of its community.

Legendary University of Oklahoma football coach Barry Switzer called Norman "a university town with a championship spirit."

Norman continually exhibits its love for sports by hosting numerous local and national athletic events.

1	The Oklahoma City metropolitan area has a population of more than one million people. OKC is the largest city in the state and the 29th largest city in the nation.
3	Norman is the third largest city in the state with over 100,000 residents. Despite its growth, the city nurtures and maintains its small, college town atmosphere.
18	Located just 18 miles north of Norman, the state's capital, Oklahoma City, offers all the trappings of a large metropolitan area within an easy drive.
70°	The average annual temperature in Norman. The area enjoys a temperate climate with mild winters. Four distinct seasons with a warm spring and fall.
175	Norman boasts more than 175 restaurants including barbecue, Mexican, Oriental, Greek, Indian, Italian, Thai, seafood, health and natural foods.
196	Due to its central location, Norman is a quick 196-mile drive from Dallas. Roughly 20 percent of OU's students are from Texas and choose to come north.

THE STATE CAPITOL

Oklahoma City

Oklahoma City, the state's capital, is located just 18 miles north of the Norman campus. It was the first city settled in the Land Run of 1889 because of its position at the center of the state.

Oklahoma City offers a variety of attractions and activities different from any other place in the country.

Oklahoma City sprawls across 625 square miles of America's heartland. The city's metro population numbers more than one million -- a third of the entire state's population.

Oklahoma City has become a haven for exciting sports action. It is home to three minor league teams and is the host of the NCAA College Softball World Series.

Located just southeast of downtown, Bricktown is Oklahoma City's entertainment and dining district. Restaurants with a total capacity of more than 4,000 seats, shopping, and a generous helping of turn-of-the-century charm has turned Bricktown into a hotspot for Oklahoma City nights.

OKLAHOMA CITY SKYLINE

Why Oklahoma? Davin Joseph, Tampa Bay Buccaneers

"When I came to visit Oklahoma, my hosts were Vince Carter and Tommie Harris. I had so much fun just chilling at their house. I found some really genuine people here that I didn't find at those other schools. They were out to make something of themselves the right way."

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

Prominence on a National Stage

Just 11 years into its existence, the Big 12 has vaulted to the top of intercollegiate athletics. A regular player in the determination of national championships, the conference offers its more than 4,000 student-athletes that rare opportunity to compete in the national spotlight every season.

Today's student-athlete desires a conference that pushes each participant to excel, while opening the door for prominence on the national stage.

Big 12 schools have combined for more than 800 NCAA crowns and have nearly 170 national team titles. No conference provides a more optimal environment for success than the Big 12.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

College Football at the Highest Level

The Big 12 led the nation with 36 non-conference wins in 2006. Its total of 10 losses in non-conference tilts was the lowest in I-A while the league's .782 win percentage was the highest in the country.

In 2006, the Big 12 Conference had nine bowl-eligble teams. The league has sent at least eight to bowl games in five of the last six seasons.

An all-time high 4,738,046 people attended Big 12 stadium in 2006. A total of 463,153 fans attended bowl games in which a Big 12 team was playing, an eight-game average of 57,895.

The Big 12 leads all conferences with five appearances in the BCS National Championship Game and was the only conference to place two teams in the Top 6 of both the final Associated Press and Coaches polls from 2001-04.

COVERING THE SOONERS

Media Credentials

Requests for media credentials to University of Oklahoma home games should be made online at SoonerSportsMedia.com. Only those requests submitted by the sports editor of a newspaper or the sports director for a radio or television station will be considered.

Priority is given to daily newspapers (by circulation), television stations and radio stations that program sports for more than half of their daily broadcast schedules. A credential does not guarantee a seat and access to the team bench area is prohibited at all times. Credentials include:

Press Box: Primary recipients are newspaper writers, television reporters and radio personnel. This pass gains access to the press box. Sideline access is only permitted for the last five minutes of the game.

Sideline: Primary recipients are photographers. Only photographers on assignment for accredited publications (not websites) will be afforded credentials. Pass only gains access to the sideline (not the press box).

Combination: These are only for those individuals who require access to the press box and the sideline. Few are issued.

Season Credentials

Requests should be made at SoonerSportsMedia.com by August 10. Only those media who routinely cover OU games, practices and media conferences are eligible for season credentials.

Any media member who loses a season credential will automatically be moved to the single-game list for the following season. Media outlets who cannot provide names for passes for an entire season will be placed on the single-game list and should provide names on a weekly basis.

Single-Game Credentials

Requests must be made at least one week in advance of the contest. Any organization that requests a single-game credential then does not use it will not be granted another pass for the remainder of the season. No credentials will be granted after Thursday of game week.

OU-Texas Credentials

Those interested in covering the annual Oklahoma-Texas game at Dallas will need to make a separate request for credentials. Each school handles the requests from its regular pool of media. Aside from national media, only season credential holders are eligible.

Texas will serve as the host school this year. Any media not based in Oklahoma or Texas should contact UT for credentials. OU-Texas credentials will be distributed to local media at the Tuesday media luncheon in Norman. Any credentials not claimed that day will be available the Friday before the game at a pick-up location in Dallas (times and exact location TBA). No credentials will be mailed, but outlets willing to provide an overnight account number no later than Wednesday of game week may receive them in that manner.

Credential Pick-up

Credentials may be picked up from the media relations office during the week or from media will call (Gate 2) at Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium on game day (see map on page 57). Photo identification is required for pick up. Each media representative must claim his or her pass. No group pick ups are allowed.

Credential Requests

Credential requests for Oklahoma football season will only be accepted online at SoonerSportsMedia.com. Please visit the website for complete instructions on submitting the online application form.

Pertinent media information including forms, instructions and special media releases are available online 24 hours a day. Approved media outlets also have access to OU's high-resolution image library for player and coaching staff action photos and mugs.

Parking Passes

Parking passes are in a limited supply and will be prioritized similar to the way credentials are issued. Most media parking is located in the Asp Ave. Parking Facility located immediately west of the stadium, one half block north of the intersection at Lindsey and Asp (see map on page 57).

Daily Media Availability

Monday: Bob Stoops participates on the Big 12's Weekly Teleconference at 10:10 a.m.

Media Luncheon at 11:30 a.m., at the stadium. Coach Stoops' comments, beginning at noon, available via telephone to media only (contact Athletics Media Relations for more information). A few players also are available. All coaches and offensive players* who do not participate in the luncheon are available following practice.

Tuesday: All coaches^ and defensive players* are available following practice.

Wednesday: Coaching staff available following practice. No player availability.

Thursday, Friday & Sunday: No availability.

Saturday: Post-game availability only. Members of the OU Athletics Media Relations staff will escort media representatives to the appropriate locker room areas with five minutes remaining in the game. The Oklahoma locker room, home or away, is closed to the media at all times.

Head coach Bob Stoops and several Sooner players will be brought to a designated interview area. At home games, that area is the Big Red Room, located in the Switzer Center (first floor).

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, interview requests will be collected.

For games in Norman, the opposing head coach will meet with the media inside the opponent interview room, the SoonerVision studio (southwest corner, under the stadium grandstands). A representative from the OU Media Relations Office will be on hand to assist the media in finding this area. Interviews with the head coach and players from the visiting team will be based on the post-game policy of that institution.

 Some players have evening classes that could preclude them from post-practice interviews.*

^ Bob Stoops' weekly radio show takes place each Tuesday night during the season. Depending on the length of the workout, he may not be available for interviews after practice.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

Oklahoma Memorial Stadium

Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its recent expansion, now ranks among the 15 largest college football stadiums in the nation.

With the expansion of Oklahoma Memorial Stadium to an official capacity of 82,112 and with every home game exceeding that capacity, Oklahoma set numerous attendance records in 2004. In fact, the 10 largest crowds in Memorial Stadium history have occured in the past two seasons.

Oklahoma's average attendance in 2004 for six home games was 84,532. OU ranked first in the Big 12 Conference and No. 9 in the nation in average attendance. Oklahoma ranked No. 4 in the nation in percent of stadium capacity filled for home games at 104 percent.

The largest crowd ever to watch a game in the history of the state of Oklahoma jammed Memorial Stadium on November 13, 2004. The Sooners stormed past rival Nebraska, 30-3, in front of 84,916 fans.

OU has compiled a 36-1 record at home (.972) under head coach Bob Stoops (1999-2004). Not coincidentally, those five seasons all rank at the top of the list for average home attendance.

COACH BOB STOOPS

2007 SEASON OUTLOOK

Prognosticating Oklahoma football? Not many are willing to be so bold these days.

Last season, the Sooners moved a wide receiver to quarterback one day before practices began, then lost all-everything running back Adrian Peterson to injury just two games into the Big 12 Conference schedule.

A long line formed as the "experts" called for OU's demise. That same line again formed later at the crow buffet.

Oklahoma exceeded even the most optimistic outlooks by fashioning an 11-3 record while adding the fourth Big 12 title and fifth BCS bowl game of Bob Stoops' tenure.

That squad featured the smallest senior class of the Stoops era so the departures, by numbers, were relatively small even with junior Adrian Peterson declaring for the NFL Draft.

As the results indicate, the group of departed players was solid. Finding their replacements will be a key part of the fall. Still, the number of returning players with quality playing experience is substantial.

It would appear that Oklahoma is set up for another strong run. Given the outcome of 2006, very few are willing to say otherwise.

The Offense

Eight starters return on offense, including four of the five offensive linemen that started the last seven games. It was that line that was all the rage in 2006. Pinpointed by some as a potential weak spot for the team before the season began, it blossomed into one of the strengths.

That strong front, an experienced and dangerous group of receivers and a strong stable of running backs are the foundation on which this offense can build.

The main focus will be on identifying a starting quarterback. The graduation of Paul Thompson, the surprise and outstanding signal-caller from last year, leaves a void. Coaches are confident in the abilities of the three players vying for the spot, but won't have the luxury of experience there as the season begins.

This staff and team have faced that factor before and still forged ahead successfully. Both expect to do the same in 2007 and the supporting cast is so proven that it's hard to expect anything less. Stoops' four Big 12 titles have come with four different quarterbacks.

QUARTERBACKS

A relative newcomer at quarterback? That's nothing new. The Sooners played most of 2005 with a redshirt freshman, then utilized Paul Thompson in 2006 even though he entered the campaign with just one career start at the position.

The three who hope to win the job for 2007 include junior Joey Halzle, redshirt freshman Sam Bradford and true freshman Keith Nichol, who enrolled at OU in January.

Halzle saw action in two games last season and completed 1-of-2 passes for 15 yards. He knows the system and has had more reps with the first unit than any of the other quarterbacks.

Bradford was an accomplished performer in the high school ranks, and not just in football. He also earned recognition in basketball and golf. That overall athletic ability is bound to serve him well.

Nichol was a prized recruit when the Sooners landed him during the winter months. Rated as one of the top run/throw prospects in the country, Nichol participated in the Elite 11 quarterback camp. He went through spring drills with the Sooners.

RUNNING BACKS

Normally, the early departure of a back as decorated as Adrian Peterson would leave a gaping hole. That's the same thing that some expected to find when the school's No. 3 career rusher suffered a broken collar bone in the seventh game of the 2006 season.

Then depth happened. Oklahoma found that it had two or three more backs capable of running the team to victories. In Peterson's seven-game absence, OU reeled off just as many wins and saw two other backs combine for five 100-yard rushing performances. The most effective was Allen Patrick, a converted defensive back, who ran for 761 yards and four touchdowns. His 65-yard burst at Oklahoma State was the longest rush of the year by a Sooner.

Patrick had been known as a standout athlete so his results were only mildly surprising. The same cannot be said for Chris Brown. The then-true freshman ran like a much older back in gaining 343 yards on 70 carries.

His vision and strength proved valuable as he scored six touchdowns.

Another that figures in the mix is senior Jacob Gutierrez. He endured knee surgery after the 2005 season, but bounced back and drew one start in 2006. He stands 5-6, but bench presses 420 pounds and has been on the Sooner roster longer than any of the current backs.

Two running backs redshirted last year and both are considered bright prospects. DeMarco Murray, who was brilliant in spring drills and the spring game, and Mossis Madu are elusive threats capable of the big play. It would not be surprising to see either or both of them on the field.

At fullback, four players will compete in Matt Clapp, Brody Eldridge, Ian Pleasant and Dane Zaslaw. All four played the position last season. Eldridge will still be listed at tight end despite his somewhat frequent forays into the backfield.

RECEIVERS

The three players trying to win the quarterback job don't need an added incentive, but throwing to this acrobatic and speedy group could certainly be one.

The ring leader is Malcolm Kelly. At 6-4, 213, he's a big target, but he also has a flair for the circus catch. Get the ball in Kelly's zip code and it will likely result in a completion. He has the best numbers of any two-year receiver in OU history, an impressive accomplishment considering that three former Sooners started for NFL teams just last season.

The corps of receivers is good enough and the ground game effective enough that Kelly may not post national or even conference-leading statistics in 2007, yet based on the quality of his work, will have to be considered among the frontrunners for the Biletnikoff Award.

When Kelly isn't open, there are plenty of options. Juaquin Iglesias caught 41 passes last season and Manuel Johnson hauled in 36. Both are capable of taking even a short toss for a long gain.

And the list goes on. Fred Strong is back along with Quentin Chaney, the tallest receiver on the team at 6-5 (4.47 40) and Adron Tennell, the only true freshman to make a catch last season. Add in Brandon Caleb, who played as a true freshman, and OU has a deep list of wideouts.

The same can be said at tight end where all three of those who played last season return. Joe Jon Finley led with 19 catches, but Jermaine Gresham, just a true freshman at the time, added eight, and Brody Eldridge, an accomplished blocker, had two.

For any QB interested in throwing the ball, the prospects couldn't be much better. And of all of those listed above, just one, Finley, is a senior.

MALCOLM KELLY

OFFENSIVE LINE

The unvarnished truth is that the outlook is bright along the offensive line. Six players who have started, five who started extensively, are back for 2007. That fact alone would rate as positive, but the size and ability almost trumps the experience. This will be one of the biggest offensive lines Oklahoma has ever put on the field. Ability dictates that it could also be one of the best, but that will have to be proven on the field.

In the middle, Oklahoma welcomes back Jon Cooper, the starting center each of the last two seasons. He missed one game last season and true freshman Chase Beeler filled in more than admirably.

At the guards, the Sooners return George Robinson and Brandon Walker, who got all 14 starts last season. They're capably backed by Sherrone Moore and Brian Simmons. The latter got a late jump on the 2006 season due to injury, but came on strong.

The lone lost starter on the line, Chris Messner, resided at left tackle and was a consensus All-Big 12 selection. His loss can't be ignored, but neither can the group that stands ready to fill the spot.

Two of the returning tackles started on the right side last season. Branndon Braxton started the first seven games, then broke his leg against Colorado and gave way to true freshman Trent Williams. Williams played well beyond his years. One of those two could go to left tackle, or even to a guard spot, or the left tackle could be junior college transfer Phil Loadholt.

The 6-8, 350-pounder was a two-time junior college All-American at Garden City (Kan.). He combines imposing stature with an impressive history in basketball that gave him footwork normally found in a smaller player.

Another ingredient is Cory Brandon, who has added another 24 pounds to spread 295 over his 6-7 frame. Coaches are high on his ability.

If the depth, talent and size mesh as it appears that it might on paper, this offensive line could rate as one of the best nationally.

The Defense

The trademarks are still there -- blistering speed, an immovable front and a vast array of blitz packages. Oklahoma has some excellent athetes to replace, especially at defensive end and linebacker, but the candidates carry the recognizeable attributes and varying levels of experience.

The interior and secondary return nearly intact and it is around those two areas that coaches can build. Oklahoma has ammassed a dynamic group of defensive backs and a defensive front that was downright menacing through much of last season.

The most encouraging aspect of the defense is the overall athletic ability. The coaching staff will have some interesting options when it comes to building schemes. Several players in this group have skill sets that lay the playbook wide open.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Three of the four players that rotated in the two interior spots return in Steven Coleman, DeMarcus Granger and Cory Bennett. The lone departure is Carl Pendleton, who actually had one year remaining, but chose to adopt a younger brother and enter graduate school.

There are good candidates waiting in the wings. Gerald McCoy was perhaps the most heralded player in the 2006 recruiting class and will now get his first taste of playing time.

Adrian Taylor redshirted last season, but also was highly regarded coming out of high school and did nothing to diminish that reputation while working with the scout squad. Another former redshirt, Cordero Moore, is vying for time too.

The end position is less certain. C.J. Ah You, Larry Birdine and Calvin Thibodeaux were fixtures. All three ended their eligibility last season so it will be necessary to identify replacements.

One that emerged during the 2006 campaign was Alonzo Dotson. He has all the tools and the size. If he can play as consistently in a more prominent role, it will bolster the defense.

Other candidates include John Williams and Auston English.

Williams has been plagued by medical issues, but may have those behind him now. If so, he is a strong wild card. His size exceeds any of the other ends.

He was impressive two years ago before suffering a knee injury. He endured an illness last season. It would be an understatement to say that the coaches are anxious to see what he brings when he comes back to the field.

NIC HARRIS

REGGIE SMITH

English redshirted last season after playing as a true freshman. Coaches have always liked his ability and feel that he should contribute quickly.

Alan Davis played defensive end two years ago and made plays, then spent some time at fullback last year before returning to his more natural position.

Jeremy Beal redshirted last season, but coaches like him a lot and he will likely make a push. Redshirt freshman Pryce Macon will be in the mix, too.

LINEBACKERS

Two of the three starters must be replaced in Rufus Alexander on the weakside and Zach Latimer in the middle. Alexander was the school's 142nd All-American while Latimer held his starting role for each of the past two seasons.

The strong side still boasts considerable experience in Lewis Baker and Demarrio Pleasant, both of whom got starts last season. Those two will likely stay in that spot but could be considered for other roles.

In the middle, Oklahoma pulled in junior college All-American Michael Reed at the semester break. Athletic and physical, he could fit the bill for the Sooners.

Another interesting element is Ryan Reynolds. He was moving rapidly up the depth chart at the end of his freshman season and continued his strong play into the following spring, but then incurred a knee injury after the spring and missed the 2006 season. He was slowed by another knee ailment in the spring of 2007, but is expected back in time for the opener.

On the weak side, Curtis Lofton is now a veteran player and someone that could push for post-season honors.

Other linebackers include Austin Box, a true freshman who came in at the semster break, Lamont Robinson, a sophomore, and redshirt freshman Brandon Crow.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Ten of the 11 players that saw the field last season, including all of the predominant starters, are back and the secondary could be a strength of this Oklahoma team.

Even so, there was still movement in the spring, including one change that made a significant impact. Reggie Smith moved from safety to corner. It looks like he could be joined by Marcus Walker, but Lendy Holmes also is proven at the position.

Redshirt freshman Dominque Franks moved onto the corner depth chart in April, too.

D.J. Wolfe moved from corner to strong safety in the spring and made a good run at the position. Keenan Clayton is back after getting two starts last season.

At free safety, Nic Harris and Darien Williams have combined for 25 career starts in the secondary and will vie for the job.

Other players to watch are Quinton Carter, perhaps the most physical defensive back on the team, Jonathan Nelson, Brian Jackson and Brett Bowers.

The Special Teams

There won't be much need for a program to identify the key special teams personnel -- they're all the same from a year ago when the special teams logged a stellar season.

KICKER

Garrett Hartley made 19-of-20 field goals last season and that percentage was the best in the nation among kickers with more than 10 makes. He also drilled 49-of-50 PATs and boomed 31 touchbacks. The Groza finalist is back for his senior season.

PUNTER

Oklahoma went with two punters last season -- Michael Cohen on the deep kicks and Mike Knall the short. Both return. Cohen averaged 41.0 per kick while Knall dropped down nine inside the 20 with only one touchback.

RETURNERS

Reggie Smith took a punt return back for a touchdown and Juaquin Iglesias did the same on a kickoff. Smith will likely handle the punts while the duo will probably be deep for kickoffs. Manuel Johnson also could be used in a return capacity.

DEEP SNAPPER

Derek Shaw handled all of the snaps last season as a true freshman and is projected to work in that role again.

OPPONENT INFORMATION

Oklahoma will play its second consecutive 12-game regular-season schedule in 2007, hosting seven of those contests in Norman. Highlighting the slate is the first game of a home-and-home series with the University of Miami, rekindling a rivalry that last saw action when the two teams met for the 1986 national championship game at the Orange Bowl 21 seasons ago. The Sooners also face in-state rival Tulsa for the first time in two seasons with a short trip up the interstate to Skelly Stadium. The matchup with Texas at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas is set for its traditional date of the first Saturday in October while the Bedlam Game against Oklahoma State has been moved from its original October date to the Thanksgiving weekend.

HEAD COACH

BOB STOOPS

HEAD COACH | NINTH SEASON | 86-19 (.819) RECORD AT OKLAHOMA

History is one tough customer at Oklahoma. The tradition, so rich and so long-standing, is as daunting as it is impressive. To be among the best at Oklahoma is to be among the best in college football...

Such dramatics are lost on Bob Stoops. The Sooner head coach befriended the would-be albatross of OU's successful past from his first day on campus and remains steadfastly focused on tomorrow and the championship it holds.

It falls then to long-time observers and experts of the game to define Stoops' impact. Rarely have the pundits had it so easy.

That was true again in 2006. Stoops' youngest team, faced with adversity that might have crumbled other squads, persevered to yet another Big 12 Championship and BCS Bowl berth.

Many called it Stoops' best coaching job, a mouthful of compliment considering the star-studded nature of his accomplishments at OU.

Under Stoops, Oklahoma has won 86 games; the 2000 national championship; spent 74 consecutive weeks in the national rankings; played in eight bowl games, five of the BCS variety; taken part in three national championship games and captured four Big 12 crowns. On a playing field leveled by scholarship limits and parity, this era stares down the Oklahoma standard and does not blink.

The achievement is so brilliant that it dulls the memory of what Stoops inherited. When he arrived in Norman, the proud Sooner program was five years removed from a winning record, four from a postseason appearance. Those atypical days of angst are so forgotten now that they could be mentioned with the Land Rush and Dust Bowl.

Stoops has been characterized as a grounded family man, brilliant big-game coach, relentless recruiter, strong leader and a person with uncommon perspective. His success emanates from a disciplined style true to his roots in the Steel Valley of Ohio, but he is far from inflexible. The principles to which he holds are the tried and true axioms of the sport … mixed with cutting-edge strategy and an appreciation for the calculated risk.

During his time, OU has produced record-setting passers and receivers, three 1,000-yard rushers, suffocating defense and special teams units that rank among the most dynamic in the land. The Sooners have been nothing if not versatile.

The son of a coach, Stoops was a four-year starter at Iowa. He began his coaching career in 1983 as a volunteer in the Hawkeye program under Hayden Fry, working through the ranks until he became co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State (1991-95). There he played a key role in one of the most impressive turnarounds in college football history.

Eventually, he left for Florida and a three-year stint as Steve Spurrier's defensive coordinator. In 1996, he was part of a national championship team. It was with the Gators that the spotlight found Stoops and made him one of the hottest names in the profession. His hiring at Oklahoma was one for the ages.

Coaching Accomplishments

• Stoops is 86-19 overall, 4-4 in bowls, 3-3 in January bowls, 2-3 in BCS games, 56-11 vs. the Big 12, 31-8 vs. the Big 12 South, 25-3 vs. the Big 12 North, 4-1 in the Big 12 title game, 29-8 vs. non-conference opponents, 47-2 at home, 25-9 on the road, 13-8 on neutral fields and 25-10 vs. ranked opponents.

• OU has set or tied more than 170 school records under Stoops, not including bowl bests and marks specific to a particular position (i.e., receptions by a running back). Among those marks under Stoops are passing for a game, season and career; receiving for a game, season and career; and rushing for a season.

THE STOOPS FAMILY

• Stoops has authored two of the seven longest winning streaks in Oklahoma history. His 2000 and 2001 teams won 20 straight, while the 2002 and 2003 teams reeled off 14 in a row. Those victories all came against I-A opponents.

• OU won the 2000 national championship, played for two more and captured five Big 12 South crowns and four Big 12 titles. Oklahoma has spent 22 weeks at No. 1.

• An OU player has finished among the top seven in the Heisman voting five times: Adrian Peterson (No. 2 in 2004), Jason White (No. 3 in 2004), Jason White (No. 1 in 2003), Roy Williams (No. 7 in 2001) and Josh Heupel (No. 2 in 2000).

• OU has had a double-digit lead in 87 of 105 games.

• Oklahoma has played in eight bowl games. Never had an OU coach taken even his first three teams to bowls. Prior to Stoops' arrival, OU had gone four straight years without a bowl, and had not played in one of what is now a BCS game since the 1988 Orange Bowl (1987 season). Stoops, in his second season, led OU to the 2001 Orange Bowl (2000 season).

• Under Stoops, OU has produced 22 All-Americans; two AP Players of the Year (Heupel, White); two Nagurski Award winners (Williams, Derrick Strait); two Thorpe Award winners (Williams, Strait); two Butkus Award winners (Rocky Calmus, Teddy Lehman); one Bednarik Award winner (Lehman); one Lombardi Award winner (Tommie Harris); one Walter Camp winner (Josh Heupel); two O'Brien Award winners (Jason White twice); a Maxwell Award winner (White); a Unitas Award winner (White); an Outland Trophy winner (Jammal Brown) and one Mosi Tatupu Award winner (J.T. Thatcher).

• OU has had a Butkus finalist in four of the last six years and a Lombardi finalist in three of the last five. The Sooners also had finalists for the Biletnikoff, Groza, Guy, Hendricks, Mackey and Doak Walker awards.

• In 1996 and 1997, his Florida defense scored eight touchdowns. The 1996 Gators won the national championship.

• During his final four seasons in Manhattan, Kansas State posted a 35-12 record and played in three bowl games.

• He assisted K-State to its first 10-win season with a defense that allowed seven or fewer points in six games, including three shutouts. In 1995, his unit led the nation in total defense (250.8 ypg) with four defensive backs named All-Big Eight.

Coaching Accomplishments

• In 2006, OU led the Big 12 and ranked No. 13 nationally in pass efficiency defense. All five players who started in the secondary received some kind of all-conference recognition.

• Moved to the secondary in 2005. D.J. Wolfe and Reggie Smith both earned postseason honors. The Sooners ranked No. 21 nationally in passing efficiency defense. In Big 12 games, OU ranked No. 1 in completion percentage defense, No. 2 in passing efficiency defense and No. 3 in passing yardage allowed.

• OU defensive backs had more interceptions in 11 games of 2005 than in 13 games of 2004.

• Wright's 2004 DE rotation of Dan Cody, Jonathan Jackson and Larry Birdine ranked No. 1, 2 and 3, respectively, in sacks among Big 12 players.

• Also the special teams coordinator in 2004, Wright saw OU rank No. 1 in the Big 12 in kickoff coverage (15.7 ypr.), while giving opponents an average of just 4.2 yards on 21 attempts.

• In 2003, his ends piled up 35 TFL, 20 sacks and 59 hurries. In '02, the DEs accounted for nearly half of the team's sacks. Jimmy Wilkerson was All-Big 12 for the second straight year. In '01, the ends combined for 21 tackles for loss, including 18 by Wilkerson.

• Under Wright's guidance, All-Big 12 receiver Mike Adams broke every UT record in 1996.

• In 1991, his secondary ranked No. 1 in the nation in pass efficiency defense.

• Developed freshman Texas K Phil Dawson, a first team All-SWC honoree and Groza semifinalist, into the top-ranked kicker in the nation.

• His 1995 receiving unit was the best in the SWC when it averaged 16.8 yards per catch (107 catches for 1,796 yards and 10 TD). It featured first team All-SWC performer Mike Adams, the SWC's leading receiver.

• Helped lead North Texas to a 1983 conference crown and the I-AA playoffs.

• Was on the coaching staff that led Texas A&I to the 1979 Division II national title.

KEVIN WILSON

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS/FULLBACKS | SIXTH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• The 2006 offense was balanced with 2,480 rushing yards and 2,682 passing yards. Three different running backs logged 100-yard games and QB Paul Thompson put up numbers that ranked among the top 10 in school history for passing yards, touchdown passes, and completion percentage. OU ranked No. 19 nationally in scoring offense; No. 17 in rushing offense.

• The 2005 line produced consensus All-Big 12 pick Davin Joseph as Adrian Peterson again eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards. Three freshmen were integrated as starters.

• In 2004, the line, featuring Outland winner Jammal Brown and Walter Camp All-American and Rimington Award finalist Vince Carter, cleared the way for Heisman runner-up Adrian Peterson's 1,925 rushing yards while allowing a Big 12-low nine sacks.

• The 2004 Sooners, featuring Wes Sims, a sixth-round draft choice by the Chargers, and All-Big 12 pick Joseph, were No. 8 in total offense and averaged 34.8 points.
• The 2003 team ranked No. 3 nationally with 42.9 points/game and No. 19 with 439.4 yards of total offense/game.

• In 2002, the line had four honorees as Quentin Griffin fell 13 yards shy of OU's season rushing record.

• As Northwestern's offensive coordinator, the 2001 Wildcats led the Big 10 in total offense and QB Zac Kustok was conference leader in that same category.

• In 2000, Northwestern set 25 school marks while ranking No. 3 nationally in total offense. The co-Big Ten champs were led by Damian Anderson, who rushed for a Big Ten record 193.6 yards per game.

• Finalist for the 2000 Broyles Award.

• Has helped produce 14 1,000-yard rushers. At OU, both Peterson (1,925 yards in 2004, 1,024 in 2005) and Griffin (1,884 yards in 2002) worked under Wilson.

CALE GUNDY

RECRUITING COORDINATOR/RUNNING BACKS | NINTH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• In 2006, three different OU running backs logged 100-yard games, including true freshman Chris Brown, as the team piled up 177.4 rushing yards per game.

• In 2005, he coached his third 1,000-yard rusher and saw two different backs log 100-yard games for the second straight season.

• In 2004, coached his second 1,000-yard rusher in the last three years in Adrian Peterson. Peterson set a school season record and NCAA freshman rushing record with 1,925 yards.

• Also tutored Kejuan Jones, who rushed for more than 2,000 yards during his career.

• Adept at securing the ball, Gundy's 2004 backs logged 48 receptions for 377 yards and rarely lost a fumble (OU lost only nine as a team).

• Coached 2003 OU backs to 1,896 yards. The backfield hauled in 54 passes for three TD.

• In 2003, Oklahoma's running backs were charged with just two fumbles lost.

• Coached Quentin Griffin, who finished his career as the No. 2 rusher in Sooner history. In 2002, he gained 1,884 yards and ranked No. 6 in the nation with 134.6 yards per game. Griffin, a consensus All-Big 12 first team selection, became the first Sooner to surpass 1,000 yards since 1998 and also finished his career as the school's second-leading receiver. He caught one pass in an OU record 29 consecutive games.

• No OU back lost a fumble in 2002.

• OU backs fumbled just twice during the 2001 season, all in the first three games.

• In 2000, OU backs produced 32 rushing TDs, up from 15 in 1999. First team All-Big 12 Quentin Griffin scored 16 of those, second most in the conference. His six TDs against Texas set a Sooner record.

Prominent Pupils

• Adrian Peterson (Oklahoma), Vikings
Consensus All-American;
highest finishing freshman (second) in the history of the Heisman Trophy.
• Quentin Griffin (Oklahoma)
First team All-Big 12;
Second team All-American

Accomplishments as a Player

• Held virtually all of the Sooners' single-game, single-season and career passing records until they were re-written by Josh Heupel (1999-2000) and Jason White (2000-04).

• Paced the Sooners to a 31-13-2 record in his four seasons and was all-conference as a senior.

• One of only three OU quarterbacks to throw for more than 4,000 yards (Heupel, White).

• Big Eight Offensive Newcomer of the Year after setting passing marks for completions (54), attempts (109) and yards (904).

KEVIN SUMLIN

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/RECEIVERS | FIFTH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• His 2006 receiving corps hauled in 17 touchdown grabs. Malcolm Kelly recorded one of the top seasons in school history and reached 1,000 career receiving yards faster than any player in school history.

• In 2005, the OU tight ends accounted for three of the team's nine touchdown receptions, while the special teams witnessed the emergence of P Cody Freeby, who ranked No. 18 nationally. The Sooners were No. 10 in net punting. Also on the special teams, return specialist Reggie Smith made a mark as a true freshman, leading the team with a 20.9-yard average on 18 attempts.

• OU's tight ends became a more integral part of the Sooner offensive scheme in Sumlin's second season (2004). The group went from 18 receptions for 219 yards and two touchdowns in 14 games of the 2003 season to 23 catches for 226 yards and four touchdowns in 12 games.

• Became Texas A&M's offensive coordinator after the third game of the 2002 season. Prior to the switch, the Aggies had scored just 48 points in three games (16.0 per), but afterwards, A&M put 297 points on the board, 33.0 per contest. The offense averaged 419 yards per game after netting just 286 in the first three contests.

• Purdue's 1998 receivers set school records with 377 receptions for 4,208 yards and 43 TD.

• Chris Daniels set a Big Ten record with 121 catches and recorded another Big Ten record with 21 receptions in one game.

Coaching Accomplishments

• Tutored Paul Thompson, who, after finding out just one day before fall camp that he would play quarterback, piloted OU to an 11-3 mark. He put up numbers on the season that rank among OU's top 10 for passing yards, touchdown passes and completion percentage.

• After spending one season as tight ends coach at Arizona, he returned to his alma mater late in the 2005 campaign and was on the staff to coach in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl victory over Oregon.

• Coached the tight ends at Arizona. The top two combined for 31 receptions for 346 yards and eight touchdowns.

• Arizona tight end Brad Wood led the Wildcats with six touchdowns. That figure represented the most receiving TDs in a single season since Bobby Wade hauled in eight for UA in 2002.

• Arizona handed then No. 7 UCLA its first loss of the season by a score of 52-14 at Tucson.

• Helped coach the Oklahoma Sooners to the 2004 national championship game (Sugar Bowl) as a graduate assistant.

• Founded The 14 Foundation, a non-profit organization that serves underprivileged children throughout the state of Oklahoma.

Accomplishments as a Player

• 2000 Heisman Trophy runner-up.

OFFENSIVE LINE | SECOND SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• His first OU line included just one senior, yet helped OU to 177.4 rushing yards/game, while surrendering a Big 12-low 1.21 sacks/game (No. 11 nationally). Three different running backs had 100-yard games.

• The 2005 Northwestern team advanced to the Sun Bowl. The offense was ranked No. 4 nationally in total yards (500.3), No. 7 in passing offense (306.8), No. 16 in turnover margin (+.75), No. 26 in rushing offense (193.4) and No. 28 in scoring offense (33.9).

• The 2005 team featured QB Brett Basanez, who ranked No. 3 in the nation in total offense, while freshman RB Tyrell Sutton ranked No. 8 in rushing yards per game and No. 16 in points per game. WR Shaun Herbert was No. 20 in receptions per game.

• The 2005 team gave up just 11 sacks in 512 passing attempts on the season despite returning only one starter from the previous season.

• Northwestern had at least one 1,200-yard rusher and one of the nation's top 30 ground gainers each year from 2002-2005.

• In 2000, Northwestern played Nebraska at the Alamo Bowl. That Wildcat team ranked No. 3 in the NCAA in total offense.

• Every senior lineman Patton coached at Northwestern made it to the NFL.

• In 1998, he helped coach a Miami (Ohio) team that posted a 10-1 mark.

• Coached with OU offensive coordinator Kevin Wilson at both Miami (Ohio) and Northwestern.

Playing Accomplishments

• A four-year letterman at Miami (Ohio).

JACKIE SHIPP

DEFENSIVE LINE | NINTH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Had one of his least experienced groups in 2006, but the defensive interior was strong. OU was second in the Big 12 and No. 16 nationally against the rush.

• The 2005 season was another stellar campaign for OU's defensive interior. Dusty Dvoracek was a consensus All-Big 12 selection after leading the nation's DTs in tackles for loss with 19. The Sooners ranked No. 4 in rushing defense.

• Despite losing a pair of All-Americans and featuring one transfer and two freshmen in the rotation in 2004, he crafted a defensive interior that showed perhaps more improvement than any area on the team during the course of the season.

• In 2003 he coached Tommie Harris, the winner of the Rotary Lombardi Award and a consensus All-American. Harris also was a finalist for the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards. He also coached All-Big 12 DT Dusty Dvoracek in 2003.

• OU's interior linemen had 32 tackles for loss and 15 sacks in 2003.

• Two of his players, Tommie Harris and Kory Klein, earned All-Big 12 honors in 2001.

• In 2000, he had four defensive linemen selected to All-Big 12 teams including first team selection Ryan Fisher.

Accomplishments as a Player

• A first-round pick (14th overall) of the Miami Dolphins where he played five seasons. He helped the Dolphins post a 48-31 record, make two playoff appearances and advance to the 1985 Super Bowl. Shipp was the Dolphins' leading tackler (79) in 1987 and finished his career in Miami with 231 tackles.
• Played one season with the Los Angeles Raiders (1988).

• A standout linebacker at the University of Oklahoma, he starred on Sooner squads that posted a combined 33-14-1 record, won two bowl games and captured the 1980 Big Eight Championship.

• Earned all-conference honors as a junior and senior, and was selected as an All-American by Football News following his junior campaign.

• In the 1982 border clash with Texas, Shipp was a one-man wrecking crew with 23 tackles, an OU single-game record.

• Totaled 489 total tackles in his career which stands second on the OU list for career tackles. Also owns the single-season record for tackles (189) during his sophomore campaign in 1981.

CHRIS WILSON

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE ENDS | THIRD SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• His 2006 ends logged 25.5 tackles for loss, including 10 sacks. They also knocked down seven passes.

• With his top returning starter (Larry Birdine) lost in August and one of his budding stars (John Williams) sidelined in the opener by injuries, he still coached the defensive ends to a brilliant season in 2005 at Oklahoma. C.J. Ah You was named Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year and MVP of the Holiday Bowl, and Calvin Thibodeaux captured postseason honors while leading the team with 10 sacks.

• Colorado ranked No. 15 nationally and No. 2 in the Big 12 with 33 sacks in 2004.

• The Buffaloes were the Big 12 North champions three times during his tenure.

• Coached on the Illinois State squad that captured the Gateway Conference title and advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals in 1999. That season marked the only time that the Redbirds accomplished those feats.

Playing Accomplishments

• A four-year letterman at Oklahoma between 1988-1991, he recorded 311 tackles, 18th-best all-time and 11th-best for an OU linebacker.

• Was on the 1991 Butkus Award watch list.

• Third-team All-America selection as a junior by The Football News.

• His three fumble recoveries as a senior ties for the OU single-season record by a linebacker.

• His 12 career pass deflections ranks seventh all-time by a linebacker at OU.

• Top OU tackler (eight) in 1991 Gator Bowl.

• All-Big Eight second team three times.

• Drafted in the 12th round by the Chicago Bears in 1992.

Oklahoma Athletics Sports Medicine

The University of Oklahoma has a rich five-decade history of setting a standard for sports medicine care, a tradition that continues today.

Head Athletic Trainer Scott Anderson, his staff and the team physicians comprise the professional staff. Anderson was named 2005 Trainer of the Year by the National Athletics Trainers' Association and 2004 Trainer of the Year by the All-American Football Foundation.

Brock Schnebel, M.D., Head Team Physician for the 2000 United States Olympic Team, directs OU's physician staff. Don McGinnis, M.D., serves an Olympic Team assignment in addition to his responsibilities with the Oklahoma Athletics Department.

E. Randy Eichner, M.D., Team Internist, is internationally recognized for his expertise in medicine issues related to sports. Martin Tippie, M.D., completes the Sooners' primary physician staff.

The state-of-the-art Henry J. Freede Sports Medicine Complex in the Barry Switzer Center provides a convenient location for the Sooners to receive their care.

The Sports Medicine Staff provides consistent service on a daily basis which includes injury prevention and acute care, post-injury rehabilitation, x-ray, and physician assessment.

Jim Hillis, a Registered Physical Therapist and Certified/Licensed Athletic Trainer, coordinates all rehabilitation protocols.

The combination of the staff and facility provide the care that is vital to a championship program. OU's facility is equipped with SwimEx aquatic therapy, isokinetic rehabilitation and testing equipment, along with cardiovascular and exercise equipment that offers the ability to manage the multi-level needs of OU's student-athletes.

2007 SIGNING CLASS

Due to the smallest senior class in Bob Stoops' tenure, the Sooners had only 20 scholarships to assign.

Oklahoma still filled its needs by picking up five offensive lineman and three each of linebackers, defensive ends and receivers while still affording key skill positions such as quarterback and place kicker.

Two defensive backs, one defensive tackle and one athlete also signed with the Sooners.

The 2007 Oklahoma signing class represents seven states and eight different positions on the field.

Several from the class enrolled during the Spring term in January. Those included LB Austin Box, OL Kody Cooke, OL Phil Loadholt, QB Keith Nichol and LB Mike Reed.

Loadhotl and Reed are the lone junior college transfers.

UAB	17
OKLAHOMA	24

NORMAN, Okla. -- Adrian Peterson rushed for one touchdown and caught another as Oklahoma withstood a stubborn UAB team, 24-17. A crowd of 84,555, the largest ever to see an OU opener, witnessed the game.

Like the 2005 opener, when the Sooners lost to TCU, 17-10, Oklahoma committed four turnovers. Peterson had one of those, a fumble, but atoned with a four-yard touchdown run and a 69-yard TD reception.

Paul Thompson got the start at quarterback and was impressive. He completed eight of his first 10 passes and finished 14-of-24 for 227 yards. He was picked off twice, but also had a pair of scoring tosses.

OU trailed only once, 17-14, but scored on its first play after falling behind on the swing pass from Thompson to Peterson.

The two teams combined for just 110 plays, a record for fewest plays in a game over the last 50 seasons.

WASHINGTON	20
OKLAHOMA	37

NORMAN, Okla. -- Paul Thompson threw for a career-high 272 yards and Adrian Peterson plowed through Washington's defense for 165 more as Oklahoma thwarted Washington before a gathering of 85,577.

Washington scored on its first play, a 54-yard bolt by Kenny James, before the teams settled into a tight first half. The halftime score was 13-13.

The Sooners then put the game away with 24 unanswered points. The flurry started with a 35-yard pass from Thompson to Malcolm Kelly, their second hook-up of the day for a touchdown.

Garrett Hartley added the third of his three field goals before Peterson ran in from 17 yards and one yard to settle the issue.

Kelly posted six grabs for a career-high 121 yards. Hartley made all three field goals, all four PAT kicks and launched touchbacks on seven of his eight kickoffs (the exception was a sky kick in the fourth quarter).

OREGON	34

EUGENE, Ore. -- It will go down at Oregon as one of the greatest wins in school history. It will go down at Oklahoma as one of the school's most controversial losses.

Several disputed calls down the stretch, including replays, marred a thrilling, offensive slugfest. In particular, the touching of the ball and awarding of possession on an Oregon onside kick with 1:06 remaining drew outcry from Oklahoma and many national media. The Pacific 10 Conference later acknowledged the errors and reprimanded the officiating crew.

The Ducks rallied from a 13-point deficit over the final 3:12, then blocked OU's potential game-winning field goal on the final play.

Adrian Peterson starred for the Sooners. He rushed 34 times for 211 yards and one touchdown in the game. He was particularly impressive in the fourth quarter when he gained 145 yards. Oklahoma trailed early, then built a 33-20 lead in the fourth quarter. A defense, that had played well through the second and third periods, faltered in the fourth and wound up surrendering 501 yards on the day.

OKLAHOMA	59

NORMAN, Okla. -- Oklahoma scored on six of its first seven offensive possessions and tacked on a defensive touchdown during that stretch in blowing out Middle Tennessee, 59-0. It was the worst loss for the Blue Raiders in their Division I era.

Paul Thompson and Malcolm Kelly set the tone for the game, hooking up three times for 134 yards in the first quarter alone. Kelly scored OU's first TD on an 18-yard grab, but also had a 73-yard reception in the period.

The defensive score came when LB Zach Latimer picked off a pass and returned it 22 yards.

The shutout was the first by Oklahoma since 2004 and OU also held MTSU under 100 total yards.

Adrian Peterson played against a defense geared to stop him, but still carried 27 times for 128 yards and three touchdowns. He sat out the fourth quarter.

TEXAS	28
OKLAHOMA	10

DALLAS -- Oklahoma outgained Texas by 101 yards, but stymied itself with 11 penalties and five turnovers in dropping a 28-10 decision.

The Sooners fell behind by a 7-0 count, but rallied to take a 10-7 lead at halftime. Following the intermission, OU could mount nothing but mistakes. Four of the turnovers and five of the penalties ensued and the outcome was sealed.

Adrian Peterson rushed 25 times for 109 yards and one touchdown against the nation's No. 3-ranked run defense. Paul Thompson completed 15-of-27 passes for 209 yards. He was picked off twice, but those interceptions came on the last two OU drives when the offense was in desperation mode.

Texas won by playing almost error free. The Longhorns did not commit a turnover and were penalized just three times for 30 yards.

It was the 101st meeting in the series. A crowd of 76,260, the second largest ever to witness the game, was in attendance.

IOWA STATE	9
OKLAHOMA	34

NORMAN, Okla. -- Rarely has an Oklahoma victory been so painful for the Sooners as was this 34-9 triumph over Iowa State.

Oklahoma dominated the visiting Cyclones, but on its final touchdown of the day lost running back Adrian Peterson to a broken collarbone. It came at the end of a 53-yard gallop that had the crowd of 84,152 whipped into a frenzy.

Moments later, doctors on the sideline determined the severity of the injury.

While still searching for perfection, OU head coach Bob Stoops had to admit that the victory was comprehensive. The Sooners, behind 183 yards from Peterson, rushed for 185 on the day to complement a passing game that yielded another 195.

QB Paul Thompson was efficient, completing 16-of-27 for two touchdowns and no interceptions.

Oklahoma's defense was strong, too. FS Darien Williams spearheaded with nine tackles, two sacks and one interception, which he returned 35 yards.

Iowa State mustered just 238 total yards, while converting only 1-of-12 third-down tries.

COLORADO	3
OKLAHOMA	24

NORMAN, Okla. -- The night belonged to the Oklahoma defense as the Sooners stifled Colorado, 24-3.

The Sooners held CU to season lows in first downs, rushing yards, passing yards and total yards, while equalling the low for points scored. The Buffs got just five first downs in the game and connected on only 3-of-14 passing attempts.

The defense was led by LB Rufus Alexander, who chalked up 11 tackles. Another linebacker, Zach Latimer, had six stops, two for loss, and one interception. Sooner defenders made eight tackles behind the line of scrimmage.

In the meantime the OU offense, in its first game without RB Adrian Peterson, was efficient. The Sooners committed just one turnover while churning out 166 yards on the ground against the nation's ninth-ranked rushing defense.

Peterson's replacement, Allen Patrick, carried 35 times for 110 yards to account for the first 100-yard performance of the season by a back opposing Colorado.

MISSOURI	10

COLUMBIA, Mo. -- Oklahoma's defense contained Missouri's spread offense and forced four Tiger turnovers as the Sooners posted a 26-10 win over Missouri.

OU scored 17 points off turnovers, scoring on three of the four it forced. Missouri quarterback Chase Daniel, who accounted for all but one of his team's 360 total yards, entered the game with 19 touchdown throws and just five interceptions. He failed to complete a scoring pass against OU and was picked off three times.

On offense, Allen Patrick once again rushed for big numbers while subbing for the injured Adrian Peterson. Patrick carried 35 times for 157 yards and OU rushed for a season-high 231.

QB Paul Thompson hit on 11-of-19 passes with two touchdowns and no interceptions. He fired scoring tosses to Joe Jon Finley (18 yards) and Quentin Chaney (15 yards). It was Chaney's first career TD reception.

Thompson also rushed for a touchdown on a three-yard carry.

OKLAHOMA	17
TEXAS A&M	16

COLLEGE STATION, Texas -- The calculated risk is nothing new for Bob Stoops, but in his 100th game as Oklahoma's coach he reinforced that characteristic as perhaps never before.

With 1:29 remaining and OU clinging to a one-point lead, Stoops was faced with fourth-and-one from his own 29. The Sooner coach decided to go for the first down and when Paul Thompson plunged across his own 30 yard-line, he sealed the fate for Texas A&M, 17-16.

The Aggies had no timeouts remaining and could only watch as Oklahoma downed the ball twice to run out the clock.

The powerful OU running game was a difference maker in the game. The Sooners ran for 224 yards, including a career-high 173 by Allen Patrick.

In the meantime, the OU defense was stingy and twice turned away the Aggies with no points after a pair of Sooner fumbles. Just as important, A&M was forced to settle for field goals on two of its three trips to the red zone.

TEXAS TECH	24
OKLAHOMA	34

NORMAN, Okla. -- Oklahoma rallied from a 14-point deficit to salvage senior night and defeat Texas Tech, 34-24.

Senior QB Paul Thompson, who earlier in the evening won OU's prestigious Don Key Award, completed 24-of-31 passes for two touchdowns and a career-high 309 yards. His favorite target, Malcolm Kelly, tied a school record with 11 receptions that went for 153 yards and one TD.

Fourth-string running back Chris Brown, a true freshman, paced the ground attack with 16 rushes for 84 yards and two touchdowns, one a 40-yarder.

The Sooner defense held Tech 10 points under its scoring average, 125.5 yards under its passing average and 50 yards below its rushing average. The Red Raiders, who led 24-17 at halftime, were 0-of-6 on third downs in the decisive second half.

Allen Patrick, who had subbed the last two weeks for Adrian Peterson, missed the game with a sprained ankle.

OU won despite committing four turnovers, one of which, an interception, was returned for a TD.

OKLAHOMA	36
BAYLOR	10

WACO, Texas -- How well was Oklahoma playing in running its winning streak to six games? The Sooners dominated, 36-10, despite committing five turnovers.

Three things kept the Sooners dominant -- a potent rushing game (236 yards), a stifling defense (Baylor had -48 yards rushing) and the big play (a 42-yard interception return for a touchdown, an 88-yard kickoff return for a touchdown and a sack for a safety).

Chris Brown made his first career start and responded with 24 carries for 169 yards and one touchdown. Paul Thompson hit 12-of-19 passes for 178 yards and two touchdowns. Malcolm Kelly had five grabs for 115 yards and one TD.

The defense had five sacks, two each by C.J. Ah You and Alonzo Dotson. The latter accounted for the safety. BU would have gone scoreless if not for OU mistakes. The Bears got a field goal after a muffed punt and scored their lone touchdown on a fumble that Brown simply dropped. The -48 yards rushing was the second best performance ever by an OU defense.

OKLAHOMA ST.	21

STILLWATER, Okla. -- An Oklahoma team defined by its grittiness all year, used two of its toughest elements -- a relentless ground game and a stifling defense -- to notch its fourth straight win over Oklahoma State, 27-21, and its seventh consecutive triumph overall.

The win ran the OU advantage to 78-16-7 in the nation's most lopsided series between in-state opponents.

Allen Patrick, who had missed the previous two games with an ankle injury, carried 23 times for 163 yards. His first carry of the second half went off tackle for 65 yards and a touchdown.

The Sooner defense held OSU 15.6 points under its scoring average and more than 51 yards under its total offensive average.

OU twice held 13-point leads in the second half. The Cowboys missed an opportunity to cut into those early in the fourth quarter when quarterback Zac Robinson, on a fourth-and-goal play, was stood up at the Sooner 1. He fumbled into the end zone and the ball was recovered by Oklahoma's Demarrio Pleasant.

Coupled with Texas' loss to Texas A&M one day earlier, the win gave Oklahoma the Big 12 South Division title and a berth in the Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship Game.

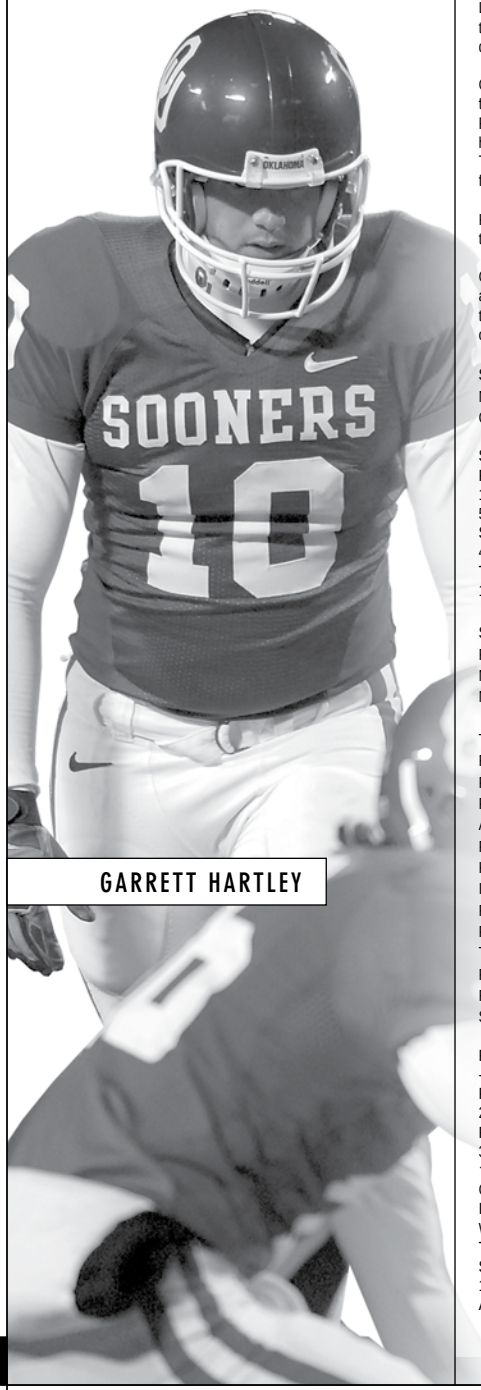
2006 SEASON REVIEW



GARRETT HARTLEY

Dec. 2 • Arrowhead Stadium • Kansas City

NEBRASKA	7
OKLAHOMA	21

KANSAS CITY, Mo. -- Ninety-nine yards and a defense as unyielding as the chilly temperatures were the difference when Oklahoma posted a decisive 21-7 win over Nebraska in the Dr Pepper Big 12 Conference Championship.

A crowd of 80,031, the largest in the history of the game, watched the Sooners claim their 40th conference crown and their fourth since the inception of the Big 12 (2000, 2002, 2004, 2006).

Leading 14-7 in the third quarter and mired inside its own 16 for a third consecutive drive, OU set sail on what Bob Stoops called, "the drive of the year."

Oklahoma marched 99 yards in 11 plays for a touchdown even though the first two snaps netted nothing. Finally, on a third-and-10, Paul Thompson hit Jermaine Gresham for 35 yards and the Sooners had their springboard. It was the first of five straight completions for Thompson, who, after misfiring on one throw, tossed a three-yard fade to Malcolm Kelly for the touchdown.

Kelly had eight grabs for 142 yards, the latter of which set a Big 12 title game record. He also scored twice.

On defense, Oklahoma shut down a Cornhusker team that was averaging 34 points per game. Nebraska started three drives in Sooner territory and another three at its own 47, 49 and 43, yet managed just one touchdown on a 23-yard drive following an OU turnover.

BOISE STATE	43
OKLAHOMA	42

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- Ninth-ranked Boise State completed a perfect season with a 43-42 overtime victory over No. 7 Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl. In one of the most dramatic finishes in BCS history, the Sooners and the Broncos combined for 22 points in the final 86 seconds of regulation. OU recovered from an 18-point deficit midway through the third quarter to twice take seven-point leads. The Broncos appeared to be finished when OU cornerback Marcus Walker intercepted Jared Zabransky's pass and returned it 33 yards for a touchdown to put the Sooners ahead 35-28 with 1:02 remaining. Boise State's trick play that resulted in a 50-yard touchdown on fourth-and-18 in the final seconds of regulation sent the game to overtime. Oklahoma's Adrian Peterson opened the overtime with a 25-yard touchdown run, his final collegiate play. After missing seven games to injury, he carried 20 times for 77 yards and two scores. The Broncos answered with Vinny Perretta's fourth-down TD pass to Derek Schouman. On a two-point conversion, Zabransky handed the ball behind his back to Ian Johnson, who raced untouched into the end zone.

GAME SUMMARY

This was the first Orange Bowl that featured two national powers as both teams were undefeated and untied. To lure the Sooners to Miami, the Orange Bowl director circled the Norman campus, leaving chalk messages that promoted the game. Tennessee's powerful ground attack was too much for the Sooners, winners of 14 straight, as the Volunteers raced to a 17-0 victory in the fifth annual Orange Bowl. The victory was the 13th straight for the Vols, who were coached by Major Bob Neyland. The game was considered to be the roughest of all bowl games played that year as both teams combined for more than 200 yards in penalties.

GAME SUMMARY

In a game that featured two of the marquee names in college football at the time, Oklahoma blasted North Carolina State 34-13 before an overflowing crowd of 10,000 in the second annual Gator Bowl. The Sooners did not take long to get on the scoreboard, two minutes to be exact, on an Eddie Davis one-yard plunge. N.C. State roared back to even the score, but OU put the game out of reach by scoring 20 second-quarter points and coasted from there. The marquee matchup was made possible because of the Tournament of Roses committee decision to match representatives of the Western Athletic Conference (now the Pac Ten) and the Big Nine, (now the Big 10). This agreement made it possible for teams not waiting for a possible Rose Bowl berth to be picked by the Gator Bowl committee.

GAME SUMMARY

It was legendary Coach Bud Wilkinson's first bowl game as the fifth-ranked and underdog Sooners took on the third-ranked and unbeaten North Carolina Tar Heels accompanied by their All-America tailback Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice. Oklahoma upset the 'Heels with the big play coming in the first quarter as linebacker Myrle Greathouse intercepted a pass and returned it 70 yards to set up Jack Mitchell's one-yard run. The Sooners never trailed after that.

GAME SUMMARY

Wilkinson's team was rated second in the nation and it was the first one of his squads to post an undefeated record, 10-0. The game was one-sided and still stands as the largest margin of victory in OU bowl history. One of the many Sooner big plays was Leon Heath's OU bowl record-breaking 86-yard TD run. The game was marred by an early-week incident where a former LSU player was caught spying on Sooner practices. It was the only time in Wilkinson's career that he publicly blasted an opponent.

OU lost a bowl-record five fumbles in falling behind 13-0. A fourth quarter 17-yard TD pass by Billy Vessels narrowed the margin but a come-from-behind effort was foiled by an interception in the final minute of play.

GAME SUMMARY

It was the first game of the contract that pitted the Big Seven champion against the Atlantic Coast Conference champ. Maryland came into the game as the regular season national champion with OU rated fourth. Twice, the Terrapins had first down with the ball inside the 10-yard line, and both times the Sooner defense refused to allow any points on the scoreboard. Sooner tailback Larry Grigg scored the only TD of the game with a 25-yard scamper in the second period. The 1954 bowl game was the first bowl game in which the players had to play both ways. Sooner hero Grigg also played defensive back.

GAME SUMMARY

The 47-game winning streak had been broken earlier in the season, but the Sooners still came into the game ranked No. 4. Duke, the ACC winner, was unranked. Oklahoma got only six first downs, lost the total offense battle (328 yards to 279) and picked up an OU bowl-record 165 yards in penalties, but used two interception returns for TD, including an OU bowl record 94-yarder from David Baker, two fumble recoveries, a blocked punt and a bad snap from center to win going away. The 48 points marked an all-time OU bowl record that stood until matched by the '91 Gator Bowl team.

Waiving the "no repeat rule" because of a new bowl contract, the Sooners played in their second consecutive Orange Bowl, defeating the Orangemen from Syracuse, 21-6. The Sooners were led by Prentice Gautt who scored the game's first TD on the second play of the game with a 42-yard run. Gautt averaged an OU bowl-record 15.7-yards every time he touched the ball. It was the Sooners' fourth straight Orange Bowl victory. Oklahoma ended the season ranked fifth in the nation, its only loss a one-pointer to Texas.

GAME SUMMARY

It was Bud Wilkinson's last bowl game. Paul "Bear" Bryant, coaching his alma mater, repeated his victory as the coach at Kentucky in the 1951 Sugar Bowl with a 17-0 triumph. LB Lee Roy Jordan, the MVP, and quarterback Joe Namath led the Crimson Tide to the victory. The Sooners had first and goal twice in the first half, but fumbles ended OU's chances and the Sooners never really threatened again. The lone highlight for the Oklahoma team was a visit by President John F. Kennedy to the Sooners' locker room. Although President Kennedy claimed neutrality, it was obvious by the grimace on his face he was backing the Oklahoma team.

GAME SUMMARY

Florida State used a sophisticated passing attack to win easily. To add insult to injury, four of the Seminoles' TD passes were thrown on fourth-down plays. Four Oklahoma players had been found ineligible the night before the game because they had signed pro contracts which was in violation of NCAA rules. FSU wide receiver Fred Biletnikoff finished the game with 13 receptions for 192 yards and four TDs.

GAME SUMMARY

Oklahoma had won the Big Eight title in Chuck Fairbank's first year as head coach. Although a slight underdog to the Vols, OU broke out to a 19-0 halftime lead. Tennessee came back to narrow the Sooner lead to 19-17 before Oklahoma defensive back Bob Stephenson picked off a pass and raced 24 yards to give OU an all important insurance TD. The Sooners desperately needed the insurance when Dewey Warren plowed in from a yard out. The Volunteers then missed a potential game-winning field goal as the gun went off.

GAME SUMMARY

The emergence of the wishbone and Greg Pruitt were late-season developments that propelled OU to four wins in its last five games and a postseason invitation. The Sooners had switched to the wishbone and they were running it to perfection by the time the bowl game rolled around. The "bone" produced 349 yards rushing and touchdown runs of 58 and 25 yards by All-American Greg Pruitt, but the Sooners still needed a late field goal by Bruce Derr to forge the tie with the Crimson Tide.

The Sooners roared to a 31-0 halftime lead and amassed 439 yards rushing by game's end, a new Oklahoma and Sugar Bowl record. QB Jack Mildren, playing in the final game of his brilliant college career, scored a Sugar Bowl record three times. OU finished second in the polls to Nebraska with another Big Eight team, Colorado, finishing third.

GAME SUMMARY

Played for the first time on New Year's Eve, the Sugar Bowl brought the Big Eight Champion Sooners to do battle with Joe Paterno's fifth-ranked Nittany Lions. The Sooner defense posted a shutout while allowing only 11 first downs and 49 yards rushing the entire game. It was the first year that freshmen were eligible and Sooner wide receiver Tinker Owens celebrated with five catches, good for 132 yards and one touchdown. It was also the last game for Sooner head coach Chuck Fairbanks who left for the NFL the following spring.

Note that this Sugar Bowl game was played on December 31, 1972 instead of the traditional New Years Day.*

It was Oklahoma's first bowl trip under legendary head coach Barry Switzer and a storybook setting. Ohio State, the No. 1-ranked team in the country, had lost in the Rose Bowl earlier in the afternoon. The upset gave the Sooners an opportunity to win the national championship if they could beat the Michigan Wolverines coached by Bo Schembechler. A 39-yard end around by Billy Brooks and a nine-yard keeper by Steve Davis were enough for a 14-6 victory and a fifth national championship.

GAME SUMMARY

Called by Barry Switzer, "the most disappointing loss of my career," OU was a victim of one of the biggest upsets in bowl history. When Notre Dame downed Texas in the Cotton Bowl, OU was in the running for a national championship. A big win over Arkansas might impress the voters and secure the crown for the Sooners. As a result, Switzer went against his own strategy by choosing to receive the opening kickoff rather than play defense. OU fumbled inside its own 10 on the third play of the game and Arkansas immediately scored for a lead it never relinquished.

GAME SUMMARY

A truly amazing turn of events produced a rematch after Nebraska's victory in November. The Sooners, ranked No. 1 with one loss, had lost a heartbreaker to the Cornhuskers, 17-14, on a late fumble at the NU three-yard line. When the Huskers were upset the following week by Missouri, producing a Big Eight Championship tie, the Orange Bowl officials came up with the idea of a rematch, much to the Sooners' joy and the Huskers' shock. It went as predicted: an Oklahoma victory.

GAME SUMMARY

The Big Eight Champion Sooners met an undefeated Florida State team on New Year's night. After the Seminoles took a 7-0 first-quarter lead, OU unleashed 17 second-quarter points to take the lead for good. J.C. Watts was named Orange Bowl MVP on offense. He scored on a 61-yard option play and rushed for more than 100 yards. Bud Hebert, who recorded three interceptions, earned the award on defense. Billy Sims wrapped up his brilliant collegiate career scoring on a 22-yard pitch from Watts. Oklahoma finished third in the country and won the Orange Bowl for the third time in five tries under Switzer. The Seminoles crossed midfield only two times after the first quarter and never passed the 35-yard line.

GAME SUMMARY

This contest featured a rematch with a great deal more excitement as OU turned to a foreign weapon, the pass, to notch its third straight Orange Bowl win. QB J.C. Watts was chosen MVP and with good reason. The Seminoles used a fourth-quarter TD to break a 10-10 tie and seemingly gain control. OU was forced to start deep in its own territory after the kickoff with little time left. Watts went to work and passed the Sooners to the 11-yard line where he hit Steve Rhodes with a TD strike to pull the Sooners to within one with less than a minute to go. Watts then proceeded to hit tight end Forrest Valora for the two-point conversion that gave the Sooners their ninth Orange Bowl victory, including three in the last four years. Oklahoma finished ranked No. 3 in the nation.

GAME SUMMARY

A season that produced four losses for Oklahoma ended on a bright note with an easier than anticipated 40-14 victory over Houston. MVP Darrell Shepard, who began his career at the UH, scored two touchdowns against his former team. The Sooners scored 30 fourth-quarter points to turn a seat squirmer into a rout. Freshman Fred Sims rolled up 181 yards rushing in the game after rushing for just 179 in the regular season.

The magic of Marcus Dupree ran out as the Sun Devils rallied for 14 fourth-quarter points to win the first meeting between the two. Dupree ran wild early, amassing 239 yards before recurrent leg injuries forced him out in the third quarter. The turning point came when Oklahoma punter Michael Keeling could not get his punt away and was forced to throw an illegal pass. The Devils took over at the OU 43 and later scored when Darryl Clack raced 15 yards for at TD.

GAME SUMMARY

Brigham Young was No. 1 in the polls, but Sooner head coach Barry Switzer had argued that the Sooners should be No. 1 because of a tougher schedule. A win over a fine Husky team would solidify that claim. However, Washington refused to cooperate and turned a 17-14 fourth-quarter deficit into a 28-17 triumph. The game was marked by a bizarre incident when, after an Oklahoma field goal, the Sooner Schooner raced onto the field as called for by tradition. The only problem was the drivers apparently had not received the proper permission for the trip. The team was penalized 15 yards and the loss of the three points.

A swarming defense, a record field goal performance and two big plays helped the Oklahoma Sooners defeat Penn State to capture both the Orange Bowl and the program's sixth national championship. Butkus Award winner Brian Bosworth had 13 solo tackles and the Oklahoma secondary picked off four Penn State passes to thwart any rallies. Tim Lashar booted an Orange Bowl record four field goals to give the Sooners an early lead. Lydell Carr and Keith Jackson then provided big plays, a 61-yard jaunt by Carr and a 71-yard pass play from Jamelle Holieway to Jackson.

LB Danté Jones, playing in place of All-American Brian Bosworth, led the defense which held the Hogs to just 48 rushing yards. Spencer Tillman gained 109 yards rushing on just seven carries. His totals included a 77-yard TD to give OU the early 7-0 lead. Todd Thomsen set an Orange Bowl record with five punts for a 47.6-yard average.

GAME SUMMARY

The Sooners' hopes of winning their seventh national championship were put to rest by Miami, 20-14. The Hurricanes took the opening kickoff and moved 65 yards in eight plays for a 7-0 lead, then never looked back. The Sooner offense, which led the nation in six categories, was held to only 179 rushing yards and 255 overall. Late in the fourth quarter, the Sooners scored on a 29-yard fumblerooski which gave the Oklahoma faithful a flicker of hope. The Hurricane defenders blew it out when they sacked quarterback Charles Thompson and caused a fumble to ensure the victory.

GAME SUMMARY

After a dry three quarters and the score deadlocked at 6-6, Clemson held off a late Sooner rally to post a 13-6 victory and give the ACC its first victory over the Sooners in 16 tries. On the Sooners' last possession, OU took the ball over on its own 20 with 2:59 left on the clock. QB Jamelle Holieway, playing in his final game, scampered 11 yards on a fourth down to keep the drive alive. Holieway then completed passes of five, seven, four, 12, seven, 12 and 13 yards, to get OU inside the Tiger 14 with 12 seconds remaining. Two desperation heaves by Holieway dropped incomplete to end all Oklahoma hopes.

As the nation's only unbeaten team, the Sooners were the unanimous winners of the AP media poll. They were automatically crowned national champions in the coaches' poll under the Bowl Championship Series format. Led by Orange Bowl MVP Torrance Marshall, the Sooners time and again forced Florida State's Chris Weinke into bad decisions. Tim Duncan kicked two field goals and Quentin Griffin scored the clinching touchdown on a 10-yard run up the middle with 8:30 to play. Florida State avoided its first shutout in 12 seasons when Stanford Samuels tackled OU punter Jeff Ferguson in the end zone for a safety with 55 seconds remaining.

GAME SUMMARY

Arkansas' defense played well, but few will remember. Oklahoma's defense was that much better. The final statistics were as chilling and stark as the weather. The Razorbacks, who reached OU territory just two times the entire game, could muster only 13 passing yards on two completions while their rushing attempts (42) outnumbered their rushing yards (37). Sooner defenders tied a school and Cotton Bowl record with a whopping nine sacks. Late in the first quarter, Oklahoma set sail on a 13-play, 63-yard scoring drive that culminated in a one-yard sneak by quarterback Nate Hybl. Along the way, the Sooners converted two third downs and one fourth. The resulting touchdown and PAT made the rest of the afternoon academic. OU added a 32-yard field goal by Tim Duncan in the third frame to build a 10-0 advantage that felt like twice that given the play of the defense. Arkansas, aided by penalties, finally scratched out a field goal, but no serious threat to the outcome was ever mounted.

GAME SUMMARY

Oklahoma dominated the Pac 10 champs in the Sooners' first trip to the Rose Bowl. OU's defense logged six sacks and two interceptions to set the tone. Rose Bowl MVP Nate Hybl tossed two TD passes and Quentin Griffin rushed for 144 yards as the OU offense wore down the Cougars. Oklahoma became just the fourth school in college football history to win the four BCS games and the Cotton Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY

Riding its defense, LSU won the BCS title, 21-14. Oklahoma entered the game as the naton's top scoring offense, but struggled against the Tigers. The OU defense gave a good account too, surrendering 64 of LSU's 312 total yards on a non-scoring run on the Tigers' first snap. Still, it was the LSU defenders who stole the show. DE Marcus Spears returned an interception 20 yards for a TD on the first series of the second half and seemingly opened the floodgates. But OU stiffened and got its running game untracked. After pulling within seven at 21-14, the Sooners made another push to the LSU 12, but missed on four straight pass attempts, the last one with just 2:46 left. The crowd was the largest ever to see a sporting event in the Louisiana Superdome.

Rhett Bomar threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to fullback J.D. Runnels for a 10-7 Oklahoma lead with 9:20 to play in the third quarter. Late in the third, Adrian Peterson's backup, Kejuan Jones, scored on an 8-yard run to make it 17-7. Peterson softened the Ducks with three bruising carries on the drive for 36 yards, including a 20-yard gain when he leveled safety J.D. Nelson.

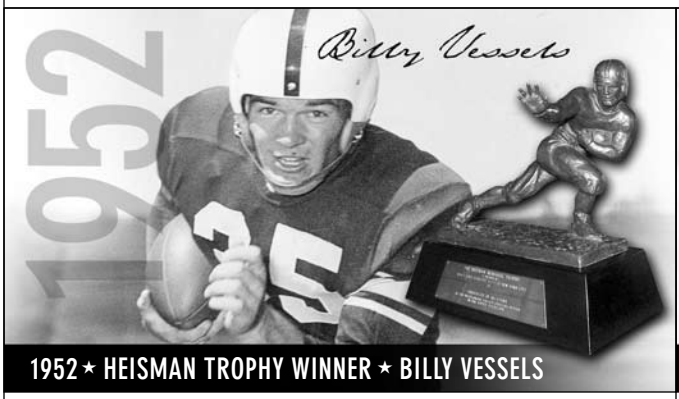
HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS



1952 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ BILLY VESSELS

Billy "Curly" Vessels was the man who started it all. The first Sooner to win college football's most prestigious individual achievement award, Vessels led the Sooners to a 26-4-1 record during his tenure.

The 1950 Sooners, under the direction of head coach Bud Wilkinson, went 10-1 to give the Sooners their first of seven national championships. As a sophomore, Vessels started on the 1950 squad, scoring 15 touchdowns.

But Vessels' most successful individual season came during his senior campaign when he won the Heisman Trophy. Vessels rushed for 1,072 yards on 167 carries and scored 17 touchdowns.

Creating a new meaning for the word "versatile," the Cleveland, Okla., slasher was part of every phase of the Sooner offensive attack. Vessels was even a threat from above. "Curly" connected on seven passes for two touchdowns in 1952.

The 1952 Sooners went 8-1-1, finishing fourth in the nation, and won Oklahoma's ninth conference title. OU opened with a 21-21 tie with Colorado and then reeled off five straight wins, averaging 46 points a game. OU dropped a 27-21 decision to Notre Dame and then finished strong by sweeping the last three games.

In 1953, Vessels turned pro for the Edmonton Eskimos and won the Schenley Award as the top player in Canada. Vessels then served as an officer in the U.S. Army. Vessels was elected to the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame in 1974.

1969 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ STEVE OWENS

Oklahoma's Steve Owens was a 6-2, 215-pound powerhouse from Miami, Okla., who ravaged defenses from 1967-69, setting four conference records of the day.

OU's workhorse carried the ball 358 times in 1969 for 1,523 yards while scoring 23 touchdowns (another school record). Playing on a 1969 squad that had been hurt badly by graduation in 1968, Owens carried the load for the Sooner offense.

Owens had two 200-plus yard games while leading the Sooners to a 6-4 season. Spurred by Owens' effort, Oklahoma averaged 28.5 points a game in 1969.

The great career of Steve Owens left a mark on the OU record book. Owens holds five Sooner records. He is the school's all-time leading scorer with 57 touchdowns during his career.

Owens holds the record for the most carries in a game (55) and career (958). He finished his career with 4,041 yards on the ground, the third most in school history.

Detroit drafted Owens in the first round. He was the first Lion to gain over 1,000 yards in a season and was an All-Pro selection in 1971 and 1972.

In 1991, Owens was named to the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame and was the Walter Camp Foundation Alumnus of the Year. Owens was inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1992.

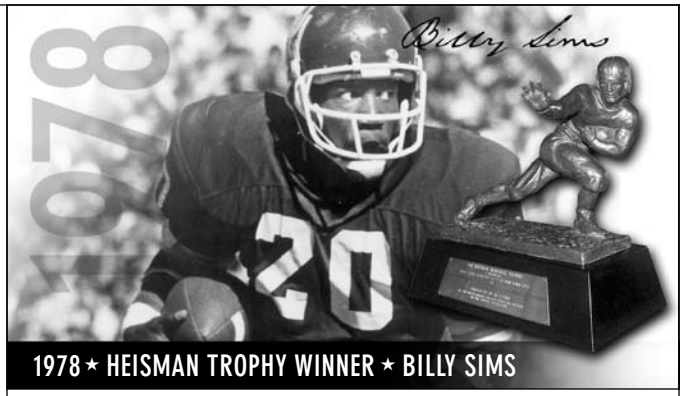
HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS



1978 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ BILLY SIMS

Billy Sims, a 6-0, 205-pound running back from Hooks, Texas, swept through defenses like a tornado flying across the Oklahoma landscape.

He set a Big Eight single-season rushing record in 1978 with 1,896 yards on 256 carries. Sims led the nation in rushing, averaging more than 7.0 yards per carry. He topped the 200-yard mark in four different games (a school best) during the 1978 season.

Sims led the Sooners to an 11-1 record, Orange Bowl championship and third-place finish in the final poll. OU opened with a 35-29 win over Stanford and then crushed West Virginia and Rice by a combined score of 118-17.

The Sooners rolled over Texas and the first five games of the conference schedule heading into the Nebraska game. Sims ran for 153 yards, but it was not enough as the Sooners fell, 17-14.

OU responded by clubbing Oklahoma State, 62-7, and then was rematched with the Cornhuskers in the Orange Bowl. OU edged Nebraska 31-24 in the second meeting between the top-10 schools.

Sims is second in the OU record books for rushing yards in a season (1,896), most 200-yard games in a season (4) and a career (7). He finished his career with 4,118 yards and stands first on the all-time rushing list.

2003 ★ HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER ★ JASON WHITE

OU quarterback Jason White became the trigger man for the country's most potent offensive attack. At a school where the points have flowed like an Oklahoma gusher, White led the OU team that outscored all of its predecessors (601 total points).

He did so with uncanny accuracy, especially on deep throws, and a touchdown to interception ratio (four to one), so gaudy that it read like a typographical error.

White set school records for touchdown passes in a season (40) and game (5, twice). His season passing total ranked No. 2 at OU. He was No. 4 nationally in touchdown percentage (8.87), No. 7 in passing efficiency (158.11), No. 18 in interception percentage (2.22) and No. 22 in total offense (264.0).

The outpouring of recognition was impressive. White captured player of the year honors from the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and CNNSI.com. He also won the Davey O'Brien Award and the Jim Thorpe Courage Award.

White returned for another season after his Heisman campaign and finished third in the voting. It was an unprecedented finish by one school when his teammate Adrian Peterson finished second.

OKLAHOMA ALL-AMERICANS

• During Bob Stoops' tenure, Oklahoma has produced 22 All-Americans. Fourteen of the 22 were consensus picks. Before he arrived in Norman, the Sooners had not produced a consensus All-American since 1988.

• Coach Stoops' 22 All-Americans include seven on offense, 13 on defense and two on special teams. They played 13 different positions.

• The most total All-Americans in one season came in 1975 when nine Sooners were so honored. There were seven during the 1974 and 2003 seasons.

• In 2003, Oklahoma set a record when six Sooners were named to the Football Writers' (FWAA) All-America team.

• Oklahoma had at least one All-American in 18 consecutive seasons from 1971-1988. There was also a 14-year stretch from 1946-1959.

• Three sets of brothers have been All-Americans at OU: Lee Roy, Dewey and Lucious Selmon all earned the honor as did Steve and Tinker Owens and Buddy and Kurt Burris.

• Seven Sooner All-Americans went on to serve as assistant coaches at OU: Leon Cross, Eddie Crowder, Frank "Pop" Ivy, Claude Reeds, J.D. Roberts, Lucious Selmon and Jackie Shipp.

ALL-AMERICANS UNDER STOOPS

2006 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ RUFUS ALEXANDER ★ LB

Linebacker Rufus Alexander was named first team All-America by the American Football Coaches' Association at the conclusion of the 2006 season.

The Baton Rouge, La., native led the Sooner defense in 2006 with 118 tackles (75 solo), including 12 for loss (-43 yards). Alexander was also credited with 3.5 quarterback sacks, four forced fumbles (two recoveries) and an interception.

Alexander had 36 starts in his career, including every game of the 2006 and 2005 seasons. He played in 39 total games for the Sooners from 2003-06 after redshirting in 2002. The 2006 Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Alexander became the first OU player to lead the team in tackles in back-to-back seasons since Rocky Calmus did so in three consecutive seasons from 1999-2001.

2004 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ADRIAN PETERSON ★ RB

The best season ever by a freshman? The argument could be made. Adrian Peterson set an NCAA freshman rushing record for most rushing yards with the third-highest figure in the nation for the season. He also eclipsed the OU standard for most rushing yards in a season.

On the awards circuit, Peterson had the highest finish ever by a freshman in the Heisman voting (second) and was the first freshman to be named a finalist for the Doak Walker Award. He was a consensus All-American.

Peterson's durability was surprising for a freshman. He led the nation with 339 rushing attempts and went over 100 yards in 11 of 13 games, including his debut. A thundering power back, he also had eight bursts of 35 yards or longer and 44 of 10 or more.

Peterson broke three NCAA freshman rushing records: most consecutive 100-yard rushing games (9), most total 100-yard rushing games (11) and most rushing attempts by a freshman with 314.

2004 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ VINCE CARTER ★ C

A two-time finalist for the Rimington Award as the nation's top center, Vince Carter was a four-year fixture at Oklahoma. He was rewarded as a senior when he was named to the prestigious Walter Camp All-America team. The Waco, Texas, native stepped in as a freshman when Josh Smith went out with an injury in 2001 and went on to start at center for the Sooners for four seasons. He earned first team All-Big 12 Conference honors in 2003 and 2004. As a senior in 2004, Carter helped pave the way for running back Adrian Peterson and protected quarterback Jason White -- both Heisman Trophy finalists -- as the Sooners completed a second consecutive undefeated regular season and won the 2004 Big 12 Conference Championship.

2004 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ DAN CODY ★ DE

Dan Cody was so destructive as a senior that OU coaches devised a special position for him. Cody, at times, stood up from his defensive end spot to play a spinner role. In that capacity, he roamed the defensive front and menaced opposing offenses. At season's end, he had the top sack total in the Big 12 with 10 and a spot on the FWAA's All-America team. Cody was a two-time finalist for the Hendricks Award who was noted for his all-out effort. At Texas A&M, he blacked out while exhorting teammates, then returned to the game.

2004 & 2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JAMMAL BROWN ★ OT

A dominating senior season led to Jammal Brown earning Oklahoma's fourth Outland Trophy. He followed that up as a first-round pick (No. 13) by the New Orleans Saints. He did not allow a sack or hurry during the regular season while logging a team-best 130 knockdown blocks. At season's end Brown was a consensus All-American. As a junior, Brown had the highest line grade in a year when the offense had one of the most productive seasons in school history. The performance landed the Lawton native on the American Football Coaches Association's first team All-America squad.Brown had 127 knockdowns and ran his string of consecutive starts to 28 during the season.

ALL-AMERICANS UNDER STOOPS

2004 & 2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ MARK CLAYTON ★ WR

Noted as one of the great stories of progress in OU history, Mark Clayton went from struggling to bench press 135 pounds in his first workout to twice being named an All-American. By the time his career was over, he held virtually every Sooner receiving record and was widely regarded as the best to ever play the position at the school.

After a wildly successful junior season, Clayton's numbers dipped somewhat as a senior, but that was attributable to an improved runnin`g game and a deeper receiving corps. He still led OU in receptions and yards and was named the the AFCA All-America team. Moreover, when punt returner Antonio Perkins was injured, Clayton added that role and took back one for a touchdown at OSU. As a junior, Clayton built a reputation as perhaps the most elusive receiver in the nation with 533 yards after catch (YAC). He set OU standards with 83 receptions for 1,425 yards and broke the school mark for receiving yards in a game with 190 against Texas.

2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ANTONIO PERKINS ★ RS

Antonio Perkins became the nation's most feared punt returner by re-writing the NCAA record book during his junior season. He set an NCAA mark with four returns for touchdowns on the season, including an NCAA record three against UCLA.

He also set an NCAA mark with 277 punt return yards against the Bruins. His other touchdown return, which tied the NCAA career mark at seven, came against Missouri. The returns were spectacular too, with lengths of 84, 74 and 65 against UCLA and 65 against Missouri.

Perkins, who also started every game at cornerback and had two interceptions on the season, finished No. 20 in the nation in return average, but that figure was diluted by the fact that his 53 attempts out-distanced the rest of the country's returners by at least eight.

2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ DERRICK STRAIT ★ CB

Derrick Strait duplicated former OU great Roy Williams by winning the Nagurski (best defensive player) and Thorpe (best defensive back) Awards in 2003. Strait earned consensus All-American and All-Big 12 honors as a senior. He was named AP Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

Strait set school records for starts (53), career interception return yards (397) and passes broken up (53). The Austin native ignited Oklahoma's 65-13 win over Texas in 2003 with a season-high 11 tackles, an interception, a 30-yard return, two fumble recoveries and three pass deflections against the Longhorns. Strait was a Thorpe Award semifinalist and consensus first team All-Big 12 selection in 2002.

He started every game at corner and tied for the OU lead with six interceptions. He contributed immediately as a redshirt freshman and was named Big 12 Conference Defensive Newcomer of the Year in Oklahoma's 2000 National Championship season.

2003 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JASON WHITE ★ QB

From two reconstructive knee surgeries in successive years to consensus All-American. That was the out-of-the-blue story for Jason White, who wasn't even announced as the team's starter until the summer before the 2003 season. He posted mind-boggling numbers, the most impressive of which were the 40 touchdowns and just 10 interceptions.

White proved particularly adept at completing the long ball and set a school season record with 17 hookups of 40 or more yards. He completed 50 percent or more of his passes in all but two games and was over 60 percent nine times, including 16-of-21 against Texas and 16-of-18 vs. Texas A&M. He fired five TD strikes against both Iowa State and A&M and had a career-high 394 passing yards against Texas Tech.

2003 & 2002 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ TOMMIE HARRIS ★ DT

Tommie Harris rose to the pinnacle of his position in his junior season, which would be his last at OU. He departed for the NFL after just three years in Norman. As a junior, he continued to rocket into opposing backfields with his uncanny quickness. Harris had 10 tackles for loss and 19 quarterback hurries.

After finishing as a finalist for the Lombardi Award one year earlier, he won the coveted piece of hardware in his final Sooner season. He also was one of four finalists for the Nagurski Award, which went to teammate Derrick Strait. Harris' sophomore season was impressive despite an injury. Slowed all by a groin pull suffered in August, Harris still faced regular double teams.

He was named to three All-America squads and was named a finalist for the Bednarik Award. He was the 14th overall selection in the 2004 draft by the Chicago Bears.

2003 & 2002 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ TEDDY LEHMAN ★ LB

Determining the greatest linebacker in OU history is a tough chore. With Teddy Lehman in the mix, determining the fastest is much easier. That speed, which made him an outstanding high school sprinter, set the Sooner backer apart from his peers. He capped a brilliant career by winning the Butkus and Bednarik Awards after finishing as a finalist for each just one year earlier. His ability to get from sideline to sideline caught a lot of attention ... and ball carriers. As a senior, he had 117 tackles, including 19 for 47 yards in losses.

As a junior, Lehman logged 112 tackles, including 17 for loss. He also had two interceptions, which went for 51 yards in returns, including one that set up the go-ahead touchdown against Texas. His one-yard return against Texas as a sophomore, the one that came on the back end of a play that saw Roy Williams leap a blocker to disrupt Longhorn QB Chris Simms, is one of the most memorable plays in school history. He was picked in the second round of the 2004 draft by the Detroit Lions.

2002 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ BRANDON EVERAGE ★ FS

Free safety Brandon Everage earned All-America honors after a stellar junior campaign in 2002.

Six interceptions, with 107 yards in returns, would indicate that Everage understood the centerfield nature of his position. The 94 tackles, third-highest on the team, speak to the linebacker-like mentality with which the Oklahoma free safety played. It was that combination of abilities that landed Everage on the All-America rolls.

Everage recorded 60 tackles in 2003 (44 solo) including four for loss and one sack. He also nabbed one interception with four passes broken up.

2001 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JEFF FERGUSON ★ P

Most punters are known for the length and/or the accuracy of their kicks. Jeff Ferguson was outstanding in both areas. But Ferguson separated himself with athletic ability and intelligent play that made him the complete player at his position. He ended his career as the school record holder for punting average in a career and became just the second player in school history to average more than 40 yards in each of his four seasons. The length of the kicks did not come at the expense of accuracy. Twenty-one of his 71 senior season punts were downed inside the 20-yard line. The thunderous punts and the balls that trickled dead deep in enemy territory will be secondary as time remembers Ferguson's career, though. In his junior season, he made a brilliant play in the national championship game against Florida State, turning a bad snap into a safety rather than an opportunity for the Seminoles to get back into the game.

ALL-AMERICANS UNDER STOOPS

2001 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ROY WILLIAMS ★ SS

By the time his career was over, Roy Williams was more feared by offensive opponents and more respected by his defensive peers than any player in the country.

In his final season at Oklahoma, he won the Nagurski Award as the nation's top defender and the Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. He was No. 7 in the Heisman Trophy voting, the highest finish of the year by a non-quarterback.

Williams bypassed his senior season of eligibility to enter the NFL draft, but still left his mark on the OU record book. He was drafted in the first round (No. 8 pick overall) in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

2001 & 2000 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ ROCKY CALMUS ★ LB

Only a few players define their position, but that is precisely what Rocky Calmus meant to college football. As a senior, he won the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, but also was a finalist for the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards as the nation's best defender and the Lombardi Award as the country's top interior player. His senior year total of 117 tackles vaulted him into Oklahoma's top five career tacklers and capped an incredible career.

As a junior, he was named the toughest player in college football by The Sporting News during the Sooners' 2000 national championship season. OU's all-time leader in tackles for a loss by a linebacker, Calmus was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press and was a finalist for the Butkus Award. A first-team All-Big 12 selection in each of his last three seasons, Calmus led the squad in tackles in each of those years. He was drafted in the third round of the 2002 draft by the Tennessee Titans.

2000 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ JOSH HEUPEL ★ QB

The runner-up for the 2000 Heisman Trophy, Josh Heupel became Oklahoma 's first consensus All-America quarterback and the first Sooner QB to earn All-America honors since Jack Mildren in 1971.

As team captain his two years with the Sooners, Heupel is largely credited with turning an offense that statistically ranked as one of the worst in the nation before his arrival into one of the most explosive in the country.

Heupel was named Associated Press Player of the Year, Walter Camp Player of the Year, The Sporting News Player of the Year, CBS Sports Player of the Year, Big 12 Player of the Year and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year in 2000.

The first-team all-conference selection guided OU to a school-record 13 wins and its seventh national championship. Heupel left with virtually every OU and numerous Big 12 passing records.

2000 ★ ALL-AMERICAN ★ J.T. THATCHER ★ FS/PR/KR

A standout on both defense and special teams, J.T. Thatcher was named an All-American as both a defensive back and returner. The Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award winner, Thatcher was one of only seven players to return two or more punts for a touchdown in 2000 and ranked ninth nationally in punt return average. A four-time Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week selection, Thatcher set OU's single-game (160) and single-season (599) records for punt return yards. He also posted the second-highest single-game kickoff return yard total with 150, including a 93-yard return to set up OU's go-ahead touchdown against second-ranked Kansas State. Thatcher was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and tied school records for interceptions in a game (3) and season (8).

OKLAHOMA AND THE NFL DRAFT

Including the three Sooners selected in 2007, OU has had 330 players picked all-time in the NFL Draft. 37 of those players were taken in the first round including two overall No. 1 picks: running back Billy Sims in 1980 and defensive end Lee Roy Selmon in 1976. All-America linebacker Brian Bosworth was the No. 1 pick in the 1987 supplemental draft by Seattle.

RECENT SOONERS PICKED EARLY

With Minnesota's selection of Adrian Peterson in 2007, Oklahoma has now supplied first-round selections for the past six drafts. Davin Joseph was picked in the opening round by Tampa Bay in 2006. Jammal Brown and Mark Clayton were drafted in the first round in 2005. Tommie Harris went to Chicago in 2004, Andre Woolfolk was selected by Tennessee in 2003 and Roy Williams went to Dallas in 2002.

MOST FIRST-ROUNDERS

Oklahoma has had two seasons with three players selected in the first round: 1970 and 1976. The 1970 Draft featured Steve Zabel picked No. 6, Jim Files No. 13 and Steve Owens No. 19. In 1976, Lee Roy Selmon was selected No. 1 overall, Joe Washington No. 4 with Billy Brooks as the 11th overall pick.

WHICH TEAMS HAVE DRAFTED THE MOST SOONERS?

Several teams, for one reason or another, have historically picked Sooners in the NFL Draft. Two newer teams have never drafted a Sooner:

Arizona / St. Louis Cardinals	37
Chicago Bears	25
St. Louis / Los Angeles Rams	24
Green Bay Packers	21
Carolina Panthers	0
Houston Texans	0

OKLAHOMA TRADITIONS

What is a Sooner?

Sports fans are hard-pressed to find a nickname that is as unique and as linked to a state's history as a Sooner. The University of Oklahoma is the only school known as Sooners.

Oklahoma Territory opened with the Land Run of 1889. Settlers from across the globe, seeking free land, made their way to the prairies of the plains to stake their claim to a new life. One of the few rules to claiming a lot of land was that all participants were to start at the same time, on the boom of a cannon. Settlers who went too early were called "Sooners."

OU athletic teams were called either Rough Riders or Boomers for 10 years before the current Sooner nickname emerged in 1908. The university actually derived their name from a pep club called 'The Sooner Rooters.' The success of University of Oklahoma athletic teams over the years has made the nickname synonymous with winning.

Crimson & Cream

In the fall of 1895, Miss May Overstreet was asked to chair a committee to select the colors of the university. The committee decided the colors should be crimson and cream and an elaborate display of the colors was draped above a platform before the student body. The students approved with great enthusiasm and immediately pennants, banners and decorations of every description appeared on the streets, in the windows, at chapel, in classrooms, and all public places around campus.

Sooner Schooner

The Sooner Schooner is a Conestoga, or covered wagon, reminiscent of the mode of travel used by pioneers who settled Oklahoma. The Schooner is powered by matching white ponies named Boomer and Sooner, and it ventures onto Owen Field in a triumphant victory ride after OU scores. Although the Schooner was introduced in 1964, it did not become the official mascot until 1980. The Schooner is well-recognized by college athletics fans across the country and makes regular appearances at university functions.

Boomer Sooner!

In 1905, Arthur M. Alden, a student in history and physiology whose father was a Norman jeweler, wrote the lyrics to the fight song, borrowing the tune from Yale University's 'Boola Boola' but improvising the words. A year later, an addition was made to it from North Carolina's 'I'm a Tarheel Born' and the two combined to form the university's fight song today. Though the tune was first made known by Yale, the everlasting success of Sooner squads has taken the melody of 'Boomer Sooner' to national popularity.

Oklahoma!

The Pride of Oklahoma plays perhaps the most popular and recognizable state song in history. Oklahoma! is the final rousing chorus of Rodgers and Hammerstein's epic musical. Breaking all Broadway box office records when it opened in 1943, Oklahoma! was the first collaboration between the legendary pair who were awarded a Pulitzer Prize for their seminal work.

The OU Chant

Every fan who wears the official colors, each current student and student-athlete and all OU alumni are encouraged to stand and raise one finger in the air during the playing of the Chant -- a symbolic gesture that shows the greatness of the university and the unity between all Sooners. The Chant was written in 1936 by Jessie Lone Clarkson Gilkey, who directed the OU girl's glee club from 1936 to 1938 and was voted Outstanding Faculty Woman in 1937.

O-K-L-A-H-O-M-A
Our chant rolls on and on!
Thousands strong
Join heart and song
In alma mater's praise
Of campus beautiful by day and night
Of colors proudly gleaming Red and White
'Neath a western sky
OU's chant will never die.
Live on University!

PRENTICE GAUTT ACADEMICS CENTER

The Prentice Gautt Academic Center provides student-athletes with a modern, state-of-the-art academic support facility that promotes excellence. The environment encourages a collaboration between staff members and student-athletes. In addition, it is highly conducive to learning in all areas of students' academic endeavors and features seven learning centers.

Located on the second and third floors in the north end of Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the Academic Center houses Academic Counseling Offices, two Computer Centers, Learning and Skill Development Centers for reading, study skills, math, foreign languages, career, and communication, mentoring office and study areas.

Academic Advising

Academic Advising Services, considered a campus-advising unit, are conveniently located within the center. The athletics department employs five professional full-time counselors who are here to help student-athletes through the educational process.

It is important that student-athletes utilize their services. They will assist student-athletes with planning their class schedule and deciding on a degree program that will suit their needs. In addition, they can help student-athletes with career planning, setting academic goals, academic support strategies and personal counseling.

Career Center

Whether student-athletes are freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors or alumni, they will benefit from the services of the Career Center. It provides a system of services that educates and guides students through the career development process.

The Career Center is dedicated to helping student-athletes make the transition from college to career by developing an individualized career plan where they gather information to assist in making a decision about a career. Additionally, they may obtain information on the suitable career list; explore classes and publications in the field as well as obtain experience; and gain knowledge and skills necessary for résumé writing, job-related letter writing, and interviewing techniques.

Kerr Foundation Computer Center

In the 21st century, computers have become an integral part of the learning experience. Students need access to computers and their resources almost daily. The Athletics Department provides each student with the equipment and support necessary to succeed.

There are currently two computer centers within the Prentice Gautt Academic Center. These centers have more than 200 computers, and are available exclusively to OU's student-athletes. This ensures that they will never go without computer access.

Laptop computers are checked out to student-athletes when the Computer Centers are unavailable. The laptop program is very important in helping OU's student-athletes stay on top of their schoolwork when traveling.

Group training is available for all new student-athletes during the first week of supervised study. This helps familiarize each student-athlete with the department's resources and procedures. Individual training sessions are available to each student upon request and lab technicians are always on hand to help.

The Athletic Computer Centers have been a model for other universities around the country. Upgrades are scheduled annually for both centers along with a face lift for the entire facility. A deep commitment from the Athletics Department ensures that the excellence in the Computer Centers will continue for a long time.

Communications Center

A new addition to the academic center focuses on developing communication and public speaking skills for student-athletes. This state of the art center, coordinated by a broadcast professional, builds strong media relations skills through the use of video equipment.

Kerr Foundation Foreign Language Center

To assist student-athletes in speaking, listening, reading and writing in other languages, the Kerr Foundation Foreign Language Center offers a multi-media environment that provides instruction in all foreign languages and in English as a second language.

On an individual basis, student-athletes have the option of working with computers, audio-visual equipment and tutors in order to enhance student-athletes' language experience.

Math Center

If performing math functions is a problem, the solution is the Math Center. As a supplement to class instruction, the Math Center provides all levels of math computations, concepts and problems to help student-athletes review course material and offers personal and group tutoring sessions.

Study Skills Center

If student-athletes have trouble with assigned textbook readings or studying, the Reading and Study Skills Center can help. It provides student-athletes with reading and studying techniques and how to make direct applications to current resources.

Thompson Writing Center

Because learning and writing are essential life-long skills which can always be strengthened, the Writing and Study Skills Center offers personalized instruction to student-athletes who seek assistance in refreshing, reviewing, or improving these skills.

The professional consultants of the center help student-athletes with a variety of academic tasks, from learning strategy instruction to any stage of the writing process including preparing for an essay exam and the formal research paper.

The goal is to help student-athletes develop the strategies they need to be successful by encouraging the use of the center for all facets of the learning and writing processes encountered in college.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

DAVID & MOLLY SHI BOREN

David L. Boren

13th President, The University of Oklahoma

David L. Boren, who has served Oklahoma as governor and U.S. senator, became the thirteenth president of the University of Oklahoma in November 1994. He is the first person in state history to have served in all three positions.

Boren is widely respected for his academic credentials, his longtime support of education, and for his distinguished political career as a reformer of the American political system. A graduate of Yale University in 1963, Boren majored in American history, graduated in the top one percent of his class and was elected Phi Beta Kappa. He was selected as a Rhodes Scholar and earned a master's degree in politics, philosophy and economics from Oxford University, England, in 1965.

In 1968, he received a law degree from the University of Oklahoma College of Law, where he was on the Law Review, elected to the Order of the Coif, and won the Bledsoe Prize as the outstanding graduate by a vote of the faculty.

As Oklahoma's governor from 1974 through 1978, Boren promoted key educational initiatives that have had an enduring impact on Oklahoma. Established during his tenure were the Oklahoma Arts Institute, the Scholar-Leadership Enrichment Program, and the Oklahoma Physicians Manpower Training Program, which provides scholarships for medical students and medical personnel who commit to practice in underserved rural areas. Also, the first state funding for Gifted and Talented classes was provided in 1976 and, from 1976 through 1978, Oklahoma ranked first among all states in the percentage increases of funding for higher education.

One of Boren's most far-reaching projects in promoting quality education at all levels is the Oklahoma Foundation for Excellence, which he founded in 1985. The foundation recognizes outstanding public school students and teachers and helps establish private local foundations to help give academic endowment grants to local public schools. As a senator, he was the author of the National Security Education Act in 1992, which provides scholarships for study abroad and for learning additional languages, as well as legislation to restore the tax deductibility of gifts of appreciated property to universities in 1993.

Boren, also a former state legislator, spent nearly three decades in elective politics before becoming the president of the University of Oklahoma. Boren was the youngest governor in the nation when he served from 1974 to 1978. Known as a reformer, Boren campaigned with a broom as his symbol. During his term, he instituted many progressive programs, including conflict-of-interest rules, campaign-financing disclosure, stronger open meeting laws for public bodies, more competitive bidding on state government contracts, and reform of the state's prison system, including expanded education programs for first-time offenders and the largest expansion of the work-release program in state history.

During his time in the U.S. Senate from 1979 to 1994, Boren served on the Senate Finance and Agriculture Committees and was the longest-serving chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. From his days as a state legislator and governor of Oklahoma to Washington, Boren carried a commitment to reform, leading numerous efforts to make government work better for American citizens. As chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee, he strengthened oversight of secret government programs and reformed the procedures for Presidential notice of such programs to Congress.

For more than 10 years, he led the fight for congressional campaign finance reform and for legislation discouraging administration and congressional staff from cashing in on government experience and contacts by becoming lobbyists. In addition, he introduced legislation seeking to limit gifts and travel subsidies that government workers, including members of Congress, can receive from lobbyists. Boren also chaired the special 1992-93 Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress, which produced proposals to make Congress more efficient and responsive by streamlining congressional bureaucracy, reducing staff sizes and reforming procedures to end legislative gridlock.

Boren left the U.S. Senate in 1994 with an approval rating of 9l percent after being reelected with 83 percent of the vote in 1990, the highest percentage in the nation in a U.S. Senate contest in that election year.

Boren served from 1988 to 1997 as a member of the Yale University Board of Trustees. His university experience also includes four years on the faculty of Oklahoma Baptist University, where he was chairman of the Department of Political Science and chairman of the Division of Social Sciences. In 1993, the American Association of University Professors presented Boren with the Henry Yost Award as Education Advocate of the Year.

In April 2004, Boren received the Mory's Cup from the Mory's Association at Yale University. In making the presentation to Boren it was noted that he was the first Yale graduate in the university's history extending over three centuries to have served as a Governor, U.S. Senator and President of a major university.

Under Boren's leadership, the University of Oklahoma has developed and emerged as a "pacesetter university in American public higher education," with 20 major new programs initiated since his inauguration. They include establishment of the Honors College, the Charles M. Russell Center for the Study of Art of the American West, a new expository writing program for freshmen modeled on the program at Harvard, an interdisciplinary religious studies program, the Artist-in-Residence Program, the International Programs Center, and the Faculty-in-Residence Program putting faculty family apartments in student residence halls. The Retired Professors Program has been started, bringing 50 retired full professors back to the University to teach freshmen.

The number of new facilities started or completed on the campus during the Boren years has matched the explosion in new programs. Since 1994, almost $1 billion in construction projects have been completed or are under way on OU's three campuses. Among the largest of the recent projects are the $18.7 million renovation and expansion of historic Holmberg Hall, home of music and dance programs; the $67 million National Weather Center; the $19 million addition to the Michael F. Price College of Business; the $17 million Gaylord Hall for journalism and mass communication; the $27 million Stephenson Research and Technology Center; and the $83.5 million stadium project. The Health Sciences Center has a new Student Union, and the new $24 million Stanton L. Young Biomedical Research Center.

Presidential Travel Scholarships, students from 111 countries on campus, more reciprocal international exchange agreements than any other university and the new International Programs Center are all making OU more international. The new Honors College helps to assure that no students need to leave Oklahoma to find an educational experience to match their potential.

In 1995, Boren launched the "Reach for Excellence" fundraising campaign with a five-year goal of $200 million, which was twice as large as any fundraising drive in Oklahoma history. The drive exceeded $500 million, raising OU into the top 15 public universities in the United States in private endowment per capita. Since 1994, endowed professorships have more than quadrupled and the OU donor base has grown from 18,000 to more than 107,000 friends and alumni. During the first 10 years of Boren's tenure over $1 billion in private gifts were donated to the university.

Above all, the Boren years have been marked by an emphasis on putting students first. There is not a university president in the country that is more committed to students as his number one priority. He teaches a freshman-level course in political science each semester and is one of the few presidents of major universities to teach.

Boren is married to Molly Shi Boren, a former judge and English teacher. Mrs. Boren is President Emeritus of the Oklahoma Arts Institute, which provides education programs in nine arts disciplines for high school students from across the state who are gifted in the arts. Molly Boren has two degrees from the University of Oklahoma, a master's degree in English and a Juris Doctorate from the OU College of Law. A native of Seminole, Boren has two children, Carrie Christine Boren, an Episcopal minister, and David Daniel Boren, a member of the United States Congress from Oklahoma. Devoting much of his life to public service, Boren drew from the example of his parents, the late Congressman Lyle H. Boren and Christine Boren.

Joe Castiglione

Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics Programs and Director of Athletics, The University of Oklahoma

Principle Centered Leader …Visionary ... Passionate Advocate for Student-Athletes ... Establishes Standards of Excellence & Cultural Values ... Builder of Championship Programs

Each of those characteristics, standing alone, describes the 11th director of athletics in University of Oklahoma history. However, just as he has brought together different groups who are committed to one goal, you must combine those traits to get the complete picture of the person who has led the OU athletics department since 1998.

Joe Castiglione has established a pattern of excellence that few in his profession can match. In an environment where every decision is made reflecting the department's mission statement "Inspiring champions today … Preparing leaders for tomorrow," forming the background, Castiglione is leading the department that has written one of the most successful eras in school history.

Quick to give credit to the student-athletes and coaches, the staff and the university administration, the donors and the fans, Castiglione was the one who implemented the changes that led to success. When he was hired in 1998, the search committee believed they had found a rising star in the field of intercollegiate athletics administration. Everything that has happened since his arrival at OU has cemented that reputation.

The accomplishments of the department and its student-athletes, coaches and staff have earned national recognition for the university and the department. Recognized as the 2007 PRISM Award winner by the School of Sports Management at the University of Massachusetts, OU was just the second Division I winner and all of the programs recognized by the selection panel were started under Castiglione's leadership. The PRISM Award annually recognizes one Division I intercollegiate athletics department that demonstrates industry-leading excellence and innovation in sports management.

His peers have honored him for the department's achievements as well. In October 2004, the Bobby Dodd Foundation named him Athletics Director of the Year. In 2003, he was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame. In June 2001, he received the General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award for lifetime achievement from the All-American Football Foundation. The National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) named him Central Region AD of the Year in 2000.

Perhaps his most unique achievement over the last nine years for Castiglione, though, came when he received his master's of education degree from OU in May 2007. To understand the need for education and lifelong learning, OU's student-athletes just have to look at their AD who started and completed his master's degree while running the department and maintaining his priorities to his family.

The 11th director of athletics at the University of Oklahoma has celebrated six national team championships and numerous conference team titles; record numbers of graduating student-athletes and record-setting grade point averages for Sooner teams; dramatically increased donor giving; huge increases in ticket sales for all sports; major facility improvements, and development and construction of new facilities. And, as aggressive as the push to improve, expand and excel has been, he has produced a balanced budget in every year of his tenure, a first since the early 1980s.

Other highlights of Castiglione's tenure include:
• An annual or consistent finish among the top 25 in the standings for the Director's Cup which measures overall athletics success in seven of the last eight years, including an all-time program best of 15th in 2003-2004.
• A total of 25 OU teams that have ranked among the top 10 in season-ending polls.
• A school-record and Big 12-best graduation rate of 74% in 2003.
• Three appearances in the BCS National Championship Game and the college football national championship in 2000.
• Appearances by the men's and women's basketball teams in their respective Final Fours in 2002.
• A Division I record of 74 combined victories produced by the football team and both basketball squads in the 2001-02 school year.
• An average of more than 17 out of 20 OU teams per year represented in postseason play.

Credited with energizing OU's fund-raising efforts, Castiglione was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign, Great Expectations: The Campaign For Sooner Sports. The campaign ended in November of 2003 with more than $125 million raised or pledged. Unique in its approach, the largest fund-raising effort in OU athletics history included projects that impact each of OU's nearly 500 student-athletes and has become a national model for intercollegiate athletics.

Castiglione has cultivated numerous million dollar gifts, including the largest capital gifts in history for athletics at OU, and some of the largest ever for the university as a whole. He has driven dramatic facilities projects, including a $70 million project at Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. Others include a $17.2 million renovation of Lloyd Noble Center; phase I of The Headington Family Tennis Complex; John Jacobs Field; the Everest Training Facility, one of the largest indoor practice areas in the country; and Phase II of the soccer-tennis complex. Other projects completed in his tenure have included the redesign of the Sooner football practice fields; the Port Robertson Wrestling Facility; phase I of the Sooner Soccer Complex and John Crain Field as well as additional renovations to the McCasland Field House; L. Dale Mitchell Park, the Charlie Coe Golf Learning Center, the OU Softball Complex and Barry Switzer Center. His administrative work, which has seen significant reorganization and the hiring of nine head coaches, also included the negotiation of multi-million dollar multi-media rights contract that produces more than $5 million in annual revenue for the athletics department.

Castiglione was hired April 30, 1998, after serving as athletics director at Missouri. In his 17-year career with the Tigers, Castiglione, who was named director of athletics at Missouri Dec. 15, 1993, was credited with rebuilding sports programs, hiring outstanding coaches, implementing an innovative master plan for facilities, inspiring record-setting increases in fund-raising and balancing the budget in each of his five years as athletics director.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione received the University's Distinguished Alumnus Award in April 2007. He began his career as the sports promotions director at Rice. He then worked a year as director of athletic fund-raising at Georgetown before being hired in 1981 at Missouri as director of communications and marketing.

Active on the national and conference level, he is currently serving on the Board of Directors for the Collegiate Women Sports Awards, the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board, and the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. He has been named to the executive committee of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. He served two terms as chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors and is a past president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He served a four-year term on the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet and the NCAA Baseball Committee and is a past member of the NCAA Football Special Events Certification Committee. He recently agreed to serve on the NCAA Diversity Leadership Strategic Planning Committee and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group. In 2007, he was named to the Phi Delta Theta Foundation Board of Trustees.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Castiglione was born Oct. 8, 1957. He is married to the former Kristen Bartel, a 1990 graduate of the University of Missouri. They are the parents of two sons, Joseph Robert, Jr., born Dec. 20, 1996, and Jonathan Edmund, born March 21, 2000.

OU Athletics Department Mission Statement

The mission of the University of Oklahoma Athletics Department is to inspire champions today and prepare leaders for tomorrow by providing an excellent environment to enable student-athletes to achieve their highest academic, athletic and personal aspirations.

Core Values

- Respect
- Accountability for Self and Others
- Passion for Comprehensive Excellence
- Commitment to Continuous Improvement
- Celebration of Diversity
- Integrity in All of our Affairs

Philosophy

The University of Oklahoma Athletics Department promotes excellence in athletics without compromising excellence in academics or integrity in its commitment to rules or conduct. Student-athletes are encouraged by the coaching and administrative staff to maintain a balance between athletics, academics, and the social aspects of college.

It is believed that athletic participation gives an added dimension to the student's overall college experience and provides an opportunity for social, moral, emotional, and cultural growth and development.

The athletic programs strive to create traits that once acquired will carry over and benefit student-athletes in their personal and professional endeavors. The University of Oklahoma maintains a tradition of excellence in intercollegiate sports.

The Athletics Department continues to uphold this tradition by striving to make each athletic team and individual of championship caliber. Its staff members work to instill in student-athletes an appreciation for hard work, perseverance, and pride in accomplishment. It is believed these attributes will be utilized throughout the student-athlete's life.

OKLAHOMA MEMORIAL STADIUM

Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium is one of America's most recognized college football cathedrals. Situated on the east side of the Norman campus, this historical facility is the largest sports arena in the state and, following its recent expansion, now ranks among the 15 largest on-campus facilities in the nation.

Memorial Stadium's rich heritage has not hindered its evolution, a never-ending growth fueled by the football program's overwhelming popularity. Almost since its inception, the stadium has been a work in progress. That fact holds true today. Using bond money and generous contributions, the stadium has recently undergone a number of changes. The most major of those was a $65 million venture that added 8,000 seats, including 27 suites, on the east side. Work was completed in the summer of 2003.

At the same time, the press box was remodeled and outfitted with several state of the art features. Another phase of that project stretched into 2004 when renovations to the Santee Lounge, restroom and concessions facilities and a new brick facade on the west side were completed.

In the two years prior to the stadium upgrade and expansion, renovations were completed in the coaches' offices, locker rooms, sports medicine and weight training facilities.

An additional 27 suites in the new east upper deck opened in time for the 2004 season bringing the total number of suites to 63.

In 1921, University of Oklahoma students started a movement for construction of a student union. By 1925, the idea had grown to include a combined football stadium/student union.

In the original architect's drawings, the north end of the proposed structure was strikingly similar to the present Oklahoma Memorial Union, which eventually was constructed separately when head coach Bennie Owen suggested it would be best to raise funds for a union and a stadium.

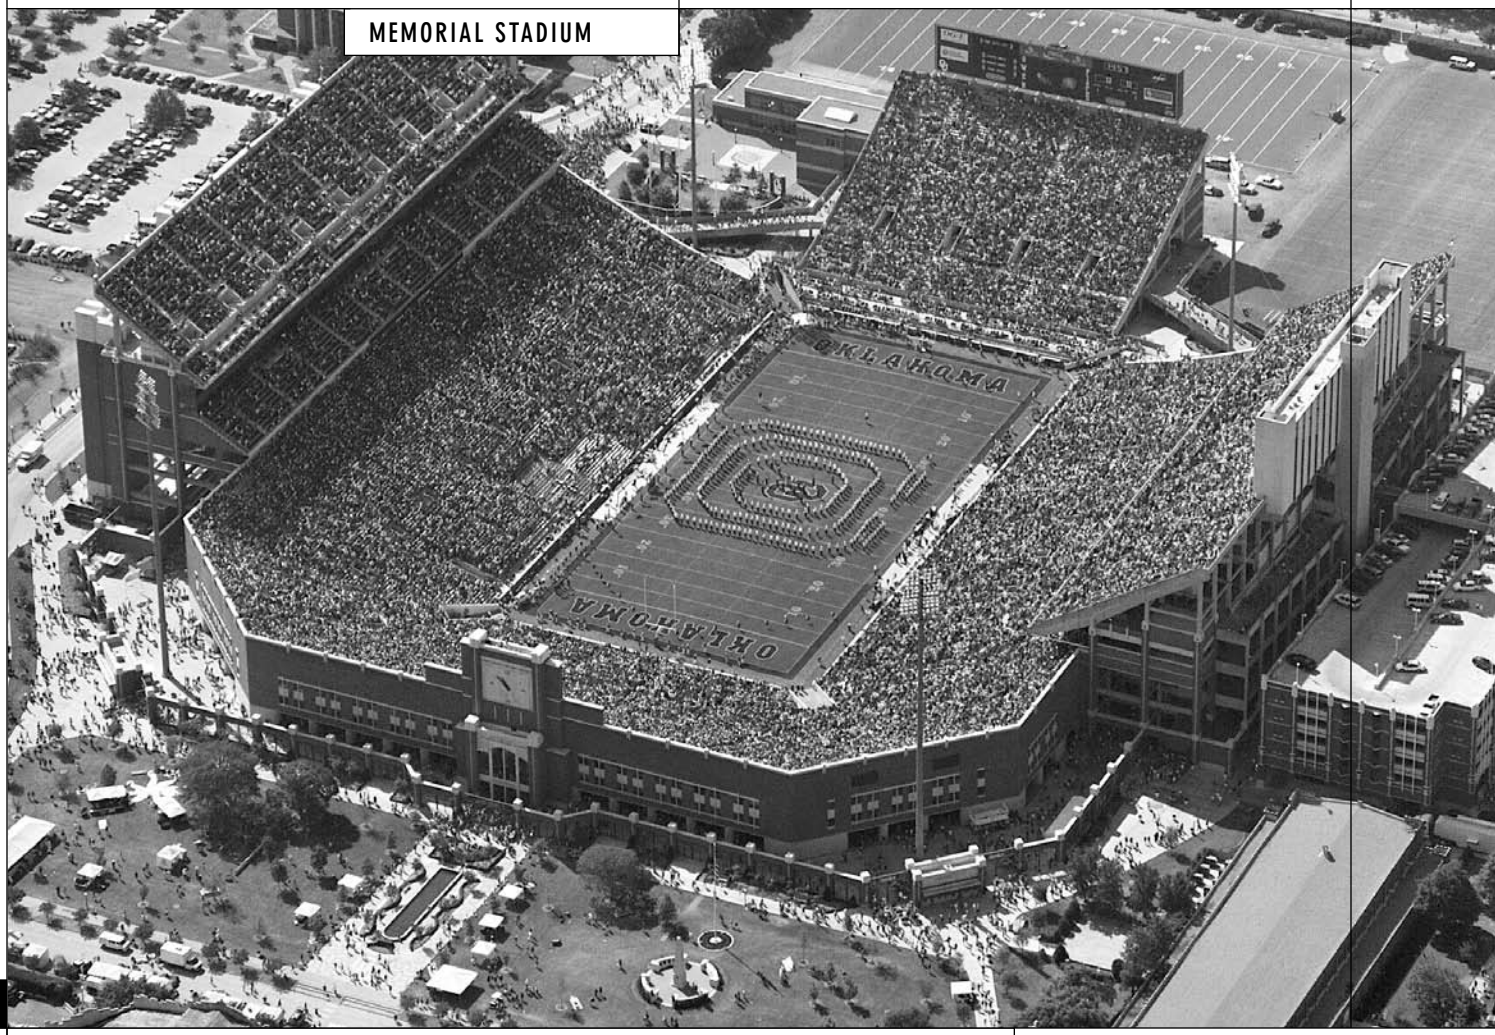
The first game played at the site took place Oct. 20,1923 (a 63-7 win over Washington, Mo.), before the stadium/union plan got under way. The field was named Owen Field after Owen, who became a charter member of the National Football Hall of Fame.

In 1925, the first contest was played in front of the new stands on the west side of the field. The 16,000-seat Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, named in honor of University personnel who died in World War I, was erected at a cost of approximately $293,000.

Stands on the east side of the stadium were added prior to the 1929 season. That addition increased the seating capacity to 32,000, where it stood for 20 years.

In 1949, OU president George L. Cross pushed for expansion and the result was a six-foot lowering of the old playing surface and the elimination of a running track that surrounded the playing area.

MEMORIAL STADIUM



The changes produced 7,000 new ringside seats and brought capacity to 55,000. The north end of the stadium also was enclosed. In 1957, green grandstand bleachers were added to the south end of the field, enabling the stadium to hold 61,836 fans.

Eighteen years later came the addition of the upper deck and new press box. Another 8,436 seats were added at a cost of $5,726,345. Capacity for the 1975 National Championship season was 71,187. Before the 1980 season, the old green bleachers were replaced with the new south end zone facility. In addition to improved seating, the complex included coaches' offices, the weight room, meeting rooms, a training room, the equipment room and two locker rooms. The addition brought the stadium capacity to 75,004. Capacity was decreased to 72,765 prior to the 1998 season to provide more wheelchair seating.

In July, 1970 the original natural grass surface was removed and artificial turf was installed. That tartan turf was replaced with super turf before the 1981 season. Owen Field returned to grass in 1994.

A Stadium Master Plan was approved by the OU Board of Regents in June 1994. Construction of nine west side suites began in April 1995 and was completed that year. The suites are leased annually. Eight of the suites seat 12 and the President's suite seats 24.

Subsequent improvements included the installation of stadium lights to allow night games, a new scoreboard and a video screen.

The Barry Switzer Center, named after the former OU head football coach, opened in April 1999. The complex includes a sports medicine facility with the latest equipment and technology to better accommodate OU's student-athletes; the Robin Siegfried and Family Strength and Conditioning Facility, which can accommodate more than 400 athletes; new locker rooms; new coaches offices; the Anderson All-American Plaza and the OU Touchdown Club Legends Lobby. The Legends Lobby, which underwent a $1 million upgrade in the summer of 2004, features some of OU's finest moments, most legendary figures and rare memorabilia.
